PREFACE.

---

The Church Book with Music, simplified and condensed as to its original material, expanded and enlarged to conform to the revised Church Book and the Common Service, needs no lengthy introduction. It is hoped that those who have known it in the past twenty years, will miss nothing that has proved itself of value; and will find much in its new features to commend itself in practical use.

Special pains have been taken, by retaining as much as possible of the old Evening Service, to render the transition easy to the Vespers, the only legitimate form for Evening worship in the Lutheran Church. The are entirely new to us, but any one familiar with them in the longer tested German Service, cannot but hope that they will be made welcome also in our English Churches.

The Editor must acknowledge, with grateful admiration, the indebtedness of this work to that of the late John Endlich, whose conscientious thoroughness, cultivated intelligence, and fine artistic perception have given to our German congregations a rich mine of musical treasure. How rich it is, those will admit, who recall the Choral Service in the Church of the Holy Communion, during the Session of the General Council in 1885, for which the music, with few exceptions, was taken from Endlich's Choral Buch. This work and Schoeberlein's Schatz des lit. Chor-und Gemeindegesangs, have supplied the Antiphons. The Responsories are for the most part adapted from Mr. Endlich's German setting. Thanks are due to the Rev. J. F. Ohl for two adaptations, marked with his initials.

In their nature the Antiphons and Responsories are intended only for the Choir. With this exception the strictly congregational character of the first compilation has been retained, and every word belonging to public worship will be found in this book.

Of the Orders for Ministerial Acts the

BURIAL SERVICE

alone has been introduced, and that somewhat abbreviated, because in such special services the part assigned to the congregation is taken from the ordinary liturgical service. (Salutation, Kyrie etc., see page 223.)

With one unimportant exception the

INDEXES

have been carefully revised and retained in their original fullness, except that the Index to Psalms, Introits and Collects omits reference to the unvarying parts of the Service. The old Evening Service, temporarily included in this work, and the Burial Service are also purposely omitted from all Indexes.

January 2d, 1893.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

- ¶ Where the directions on a page are separated by double lines, all above the lines are Rubrics "by authority." Those below the lines refer to the music, or are drawn from the Rubrics of the Church Book.
- ¶ Where a Rubric "by authority" requires some addition in connection with the music, or in consequence of the partial re-arrangement of the Church Book, this is given in a foot-note, or enclosed in brackets.
- ¶ In the unbarred melodies, the most important of which is the Alleluistic Sequence, 19 a, the accent of the words determines that of the music. Bars are here only used to show the ending of the lines, and double bars, of the verses, of each hymn. It is seldom desirable to pause much (sometimes not at all) at the end of each line, especially when the sense of the words (or the structure of the melody) connects it with the following line of the hymn or phrase of the music. The slur connects two or more notes when they are to be sung to one syllable. Notes of the same value tied thus, should be sung in equal and measured time, and the half notes should bear the same relation to the whole notes as in other music.
- Good taste, and a keen sense both of the poetic and musical accent, will in general leave little doubt on the mind of the musician, as to what is the best reading of each particular melody: while the rate of progress will be dictated by its style and structure, the Season of the Church Year, the sentiment of the verse and the capabilities of the singer or accompanist.**
- ¶ The same rule in regard to the rate of speed, will apply to all melodies German as well as English: the notation of these, whether in half notes or quarter notes, being chosen in every case for typographical reasons only.

Congregations unaccustomed to chanting will find the following explanation useful.

Anglican Chants are of two kinds, single and double. A single Chant is composed of two parts, the first consisting of three bars, and the last of four, and is to be sung through once to every verse of the Psalm or Introit.

A double Chant is exactly equal to two single Chants, and must be sung through once to every two verses. When the Psalm contains an odd number of verses, the last half of a double Chant should be repeated for the final verse, in order that the Gloria Patri may begin with the first strain.

Good chanting is simply good reading, only in a musical tone; the grouping of the words, emphasis, expression, etc., should be the same as in reading. The time of the first or reciting note is variable, and must depend upon the number of syllables to be sung to it: but though it may be held longer than a full bar if the number of words require it, yet, however few the words, it is never held less than a full bar. These words should not be unduly hurried, but recited at the pace in which they would commonly be read.

A slight pause may be made at commas and upon the last accented word before the bar, but only such a pause as the emphasis would require in ordinary reading.

The first bar marks the beginning of musical time, which continues to the double bar, after which the recitation is resumed.

A single word or syllable between two bars, is to be sung to all the notes between the corresponding bars in the music.

Where more than two syllables occur in one bar, the accent of the words and music must coincide. As a rule, the words "of the" "to the" and similar phrases, before or after an accented word in the same bar, are to be sung to one note. The . . separates words (and the - - syllables) sung to different notes, where a doubt might arise as to their division.

A dot following a bar shows that the preceding syllable is held for one note. No two dots indicate that the notes of the whole bar are to be sung to the preceding syllable.

* In a Leap Year, the number of Sundays after Epiphany is the same as if Easter had fallen one day later than it really does; and Septuagesima Sunday and Ash-Wednesday fall one day later than that given in the Table, unless the Table gives some day in March for Ash-Wednesday; for in that case the day in the Table is right.

LESSONS FOR MORNING AND EVENING THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

These Lessons may be used at Matins and Vespers, or at the Morning and Evening Prayer of the household, on the days of the week.

The Lessons appointed for days between the Fourth Sunday in Advent and the First Sunday after Epiphany are to be omitted when the days for which they are appointed do not occur.

When there are not six Sundays after Epiphany, the Lessons for the week after the First Sunday may be omitted one year; and those which follow another Sunday, the second year; and so on: in order that in the course of several years all the Lessons provided may be read.

The Lessons appointed for the days from the Twentieth Sunday after Trinity to the end of the year are to be read in every year, and those appointed for the weeks before the Twentieth Sunday after Trinity are to be omitted so far as necessary to this end.

[In this Table the first Lesson is for the Morning, and the second for the Evening of each day.]

Wherefore we flee for refuge to Thine infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Thy grace, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¶ The Congregation may then say with the Minister:

O most merciful God, who hast given Thine Only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us, and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins: and by Thy Holy Spirit increase in us true

¶ Then shall the Congregation sing or say:

Amen.*

¶ Then the Minister, standing, shall say:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, hath had mercy upon us, and given His Only Son to die for us, and for His sake forgiveth us all our sins. ¶ The singing ended, the Minister shall offer the General Prayer. He may use the Prayer here following; or, if there be no Communion, the Litany, or a selection from the Collects and Prayers, or any other suitable Prayer. (See pages 189 and 200.)

Almighty and most merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: We thank Thee for all Thy goodness and tender mercies, especially for the gift of Thy dear Son, and for the revelation of Thy will and grace: and we beseech Thee so to implant Thy Word in us, that, in good and honest hearts, we may keep it, and bring forth fruit by patient continuance in well doing.

Most heartily we beseech Thee so to rule and govern Thy Church universal, with all its pastors and ministers, that it may be preserved in the pure doctrine of Thy saving word, whereby faith toward Thee may be strengthened, and charity increased in us toward all mankind.

Grant also health and prosperity to all in authority, especially to the President [and Congress] of the United States, the Governor [and Legislature] of this Commonwealth, and to all our Judges and Magistrates; and endue them with grace to rule after Thy good pleasure, to the maintenance of righteousness, and to the hinderance and punishment of wickedness, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and honesty.

May it please Thee also to turn the hearts of our enemies and adversaries, that they may cease their enmity, and be inclined to walk with us in meekness and in peace.

All who are in trouble, want, sickness, anguish of labor, peril of death, or any other adversity, especially those who are in suffering for Thy Name and for Thy truth's sake, comfort, O God, with Thy Holy Spirit, that they may receive and acknowledge their afflictions as the manifestation of Thy fatherly will.

And although we have deserved Thy righteous wrath and manifold punishments, yet, we entreat Thee, O most merciful Father, remember not the sins of our youth, nor our many transgressions; but out of Thine unspeakable goodness, grace and mercy, defend us from all harm and danger of body and soul. Preserve us from false and pernicious doctrine, from war and bloodshed, from plague and pestilence, from all calamity by fire and water, from hail and tempest, from failure of harvest and from famine, from anguish of heart and despair of Thy mercy, and from an evil death. And in every time of trouble, show Thyself a very present Help, the Saviour of all men, and especially of them that believe.

Cause also the needful fruits of the earth to prosper, that we may enjoy them in due season. Give success to the Christian training of the young, to all lawful occupations on land and sea, and to all pure arts and useful knowledge; and crown them with Thy blessing.

Here special Supplications, Intercessions, and Prayers may be made.

These, and whatsoever other things Thou wouldst have us ask of Thee, O God, vouchsafe unto us for the sake of the bitter sufferings and death of Jesus Christ, Thine only Son, our Lord and Saviour, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.

Then shall the Minister, and the Congregation with him, say

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father, who art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Offerings of the Congregation be gathered, and the Minister shall place them upon the Altar. He may then make any needful announcements.

¶ A Hymn shall then be sung, which, if there be no Communion, shall close with a Doxology; after which the Minister, standing before the Altar, shall pronounce

THE BENEDICTION.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee.

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

¶ The Congregation should then offer silent prayer.

Amen after the Benediction.

¶ The Amen, whether single or triple, should be used as at the beginning of the Service, and may be transposed at the discretion of the Organist.

Who on the tree of the Cross didst give salvation unto mankind; that whence death arose, thence life also might rise again: and that he who by a tree once overcame, might likewise by a tree be overcome, through Christ our Lord; through Whom with Angels, etc.

For the Easter Season.

But chiefly are we bound to praise Thee for the glorious Resurrection of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for He is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; Who by His death hath destroyed death, and by His rising to life again, hath restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with Angels, etc.

SANCTUS.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory;

Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

¶ Then may the Minister give this Exhortation to those that be minded to receive the Lord's Supper:

THE EXHORTATION.

Dearly Beloved ! Forasmuch as we purpose to come to the Holy Supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, it becometh us diligently to examine ourselves, as St. Paul exhorteth us. For this Holy Sacrament hath been instituted for the special comfort and strengthening of those who humbly confess their sins, and who hunger and thirst after righteousness.

The Sanctus.

I. For General Use.

FROM DR. CAMIDGE.

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of Thy glo - ry;

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God of Sa - ba - oth.

Heaven and earth are full, are full of Thy glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

But if we thus examine ourselves, we shall find in us nothing but sin and death, from which we can in no wise set ourselves free. Therefore our Lord Jesus Christ hath had mercy upon us, and hath taken upon Himself our nature, that so He might fulfil for us the whole will and law of God, and for us and for our deliverance suffer death and all that we by our sins have deserved. And to the end that we should the more confidently believe this, and be strengthened by our faith in cheerful obedience to His will, He hath instituted the Holy Sacrament of His Supper, in which He giveth us His Body to eat, and His Blood to drink.

Therefore whoso eateth of this bread, and drinketh of this cup, firmly believing the words of Christ, dwelleth in Christ, and Christ in him, and hath eternal life.

Sanctus. (Continued.)

Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the highest, the high - est.

heaven and earth are full of Thy glo - ry Ho - san - na in the high -

We should also do this in remembrance of Him, showing His death, that He was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification, and rendering unto Him most hearty thanks for the same, take up our cross and follow Him, and according to His commandment, love one another even as He hath loved us. For we are all one bread and one body, even as we are all partakers of this one bread, and drink of this one cup.

¶ Then the Minister, turning to the Altar, shall say:

Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven; hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

ANTIPHONS,

FOR THE SUNDAYS AND FESTIVALS
OF THE CHURCH YEAR, WITH THEIR PROPER TONES,

FOLLOWED BY

SINGLE AND DOUBLE CHANTS,

ARRANGED ACCORDING TO THEIR KEY.

ALSO

PSALMS AND CANTICLES.

For the Antiphon is selected : 1. a verse of the Psalm or Canticle which it precedes ; 2. a verse embodying the character of the Psalm or Canticle ; 3. a verse appropriate to the Day or Season of the Church Year.

The Antiphon must always be followed by the Tone which is given with it, and is repeated after the Psalm. One Antiphon is usually sung before and after any number of Psalms that may be used together. For Festivals, where two or more Psalms are sung, an Antiphon may be used with each.

On Week-days the Antiphon is generally omitted ; as also before certain Psalms. (4, 31, 31.)

Before the Psalm the Antiphon is usually sung by one voice (Tenor if possible) or by several voices in unison, accompanied by the organ. After the Psalm, the Antiphon should be repeated by the full choir in harmony, with or without accompaniment.

Following Schoeberlein, the Antiphon contains occasionally a long note |  | denoting simply several repetitions of the same chord. This is not a recitative, as in a chant, but the syllables to which it belongs must be sung in musical time, in keeping with the Antiphon in which it occurs. See Antiphon 1. page 49, where small notes mark the syllables included in the |  |.

THE PSALM.

Where the Gregorian Tone is used, antiphonal singing is most appropriate, the finest effect being produced when each verse of the Psalm is divided : 1. between male voices in unison, and female voices in unison ; 2. between two choirs ; or preferably ; 3. between the choir singing in unison or harmony, with or without the organ, for the first phrase ; and the choir and congregation in unison, accompanied by the organ, for the second phrase. In every case the congregation unites in the Gloria Patri.

Although reading the Psalm is in general not to be recommended, yet a few Psalms in the selection following are pointed with accents ' ' instead of bars, because either in their contents or from their length, they are better adapted for reading than for singing.

THE INTONATION,

i. e. the small notes separated by a colon : from the reciting note (Dominant) of the Gregorian Tone, is used or omitted according to the following rules.

1. On Sundays and Festivals use the Intonation to every verse of the Evangelical Canticles, Magnificat, Benedictus and Nunc Dimittis ; to both verses of the Gloria Patri ; to the first verse of every other Canticle, and of each Psalm or portion of Psalms.
2. On other days only to the first verse of each Canticle, and to both verses of the Gloria Patri.
3. On Fast Days, only to the first verse of the Evangelical Canticles.

THE DOMINANT

or reciting note, in several forms of the 2d, 5th and 8th Tones extends over two bars, and the notes are tied. In such cases consider the bar between these notes as omitted in the words, and continue the recitation up to the second bar. The last bar of or middle Cadence, consists in certain Tones, of two notes, large and small. Where there is but one syllable sung to this bar, omit the small note, and hold the other for the full time of the bar.

THE MEDIATION

In cases where the closing bar of a Cadence contains two notes alike in form, these must be tied, when only one syllable occurs.

In the Mediation, and also in

THE FINALIS

or closing Cadence, tied notes should be sung if possible to one syllable, the slur in this case being characteristic of the Tone.

He maketh my feet like | hinds' | feet; || and setteth me up-|on my | high | places.

Thou hast also given me the shield of | Thy sal-|vation; || and Thy right hand hath holden me up, and Thy gentleness hath | made | me | great.

Thou hast enlarged my steps | under | me; || that my | feet | did not | slip.

I have pursued mine enemies and over-|taken | them; || neither did I turn a-|gain | till they | were con-|suméd.

Tonus Perigrinus.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws: and Thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me; they pierced my hands and my feet.

I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture.

But be not Thou far from me, O Lord: O my strength, haste Thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth: for Thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

I will declare Thy Name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise Thee.

Ye that fear the Lord, praise Him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify Him: and fear Him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For He hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted: neither hath He hid His face from him; but when he cried unto Him, He heard.

My praise shall be of Thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear Him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lord that seek Him; your heart shall live for ever.

All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee.

For the kingdom is the Lord's: and He is the governor among the nations.

All they that be fat upon the earth: shall eat and worship.

All they that go down to the dust shall bow before Him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

A seed shall serve Him: it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

They shall come, and shall declare His righteousness unto a people that shall be born: that He hath done this.

Which by His strength setteth fast the mountains: being girded with power.

Which stilleth the noise of the seas: the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at Thy tokens: Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

Thou visitest the earth, and water-est it; Thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water.

Thou pre-destinest them corn; when Thou hast so provided for it. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly; Thou settlest the furrows thereof; Thou makest it soft with showers; Thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness; and Thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the wilder-ness; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

I SAID in the cutting off of my days,

I am deprived of the | resi -- due | of my | years.

I said, I shall not see the Lord, even
the Lord, in the | land .. of the | living; ||
I shall behold man no more with the inhabit -- ants | of the | world.

Mine age | is de- | parted; || and is re-

I have cut off like a | weaver .. my | life; || He will cut me off with pining sickness; from day even to night wilt
Thou | make an | end of | me.

I reckoned until morning; as a lion so
will He break | all my | bones; || from day even to night wilt Thou | make an |

Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter; I did mourn as a dove: mine
eyes fail with | looking | upward; || O
Lord, I am oppressed | under- | take for | me.

What shall I say? He hath both spoken | unto | me; || and Him- | self hath |

done | it.

O Lord, by these things | men | live; ||

RESPONSORIES.

¶ The Responsory varies with the Season, and may be sung after the last Lesson at Matins and Vespers. At the end of the Responsory is sung Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, (but not "As it was in the beginning etc.") The last sentence of the Responsory is repeated after the Verse, and again after the Gloria Patri. (In the Burial Service the Gloria Patri is omitted.)

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who hast revealed Thy glory to all nations in Jesus Christ and the word of His truth: Keep, we beseech Thee, in safety the works of Thy mercy, that so Thy Church, spread throughout all nations, may serve Thee in true faith, and persevere in the confession of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by Whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before Thee for all estates of men in Thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve Thee; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for our Catechumens, that the Lord our God would open their hearts and the door of His mercy, that having received the remission of all their sins by the washing of regeneration, they may be mindful of their baptismal covenant, and evermore be found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who dost always multiply Thy Church, and with Thy light and grace dost

O MERCIFUL Father in heaven, Who holdest in Thy hand all the might of man, and Who hast ordained the powers that be for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well; and of Whom is all rule and authority in the kingdoms of the world: We humbly beseech Thee, graciously regard Thy servants, the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth, our Judges and magistrates, and all the Rulers of the earth; that all who receive the sword, as Thy ministers, may bear it according to Thy commandment; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who art worthy to be had in reverence by all the children of men: We give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for the innumerable blessings, both temporal and spiritual, which, without any merit or worthiness on our part, Thou hast bestowed upon us.

We praise Thee, especially that Thou hast preserved unto us, in their purity, Thy saving Word, and the sacred ordinances of Thy house. And we beseech Thee, O Lord, to grant and preserve unto Thy holy Church, throughout the world, purity of doctrine, and faithful pastors who shall preach Thy Word with power; and help all who hear, rightly to understand, and truly to believe the same. Be Thou the Protector and Defender of Thy people in all time of tribulation and danger; and may we, in communion with Thy Church, and in brotherly unity with all our fellow-Christians, fight the good fight of faith, and in the end receive the salvation of our souls.

Bestow Thy grace upon all the nations of the earth. Especially do we entreat Thee to bless our land, and all its inhabitants, and all who are in authority. Cause Thy glory to dwell among us, and let mercy and truth, righteousness and peace, everywhere prevail. To this end, we commend to Thy care all our schools, and pray Thee to make them nurseries of useful knowledge and of Christian virtues, that they may bring forth the wholesome fruits of life.

Graciously defend us from all calamities by fire and water, from war and pestilence, from scarcity and famine. Protect and prosper every one in his appropriate calling, and cause all useful arts to flourish among us. Be Thou the God and Father of the widow and the orphan, the Helper of the sick and needy, and the Comforter of the forsaken and distressed.

Here special Supplications, Intercessions, and Prayers may be made.

And as we are strangers and pilgrims on earth, help us by true faith and a godly life to prepare for the world to come; doing the work which Thou hast given us to do while it is day, before the night cometh when no man can work. And when our last hour shall come, support us by Thy power, and receive us into Thine everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

VII.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father: We, Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives: that, walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, we may enjoy the testimony of a good conscience and the hope of Thy favor, be sustained and comforted under the troubles of this life, and finally be received into Thine everlasting kingdom, through Thine infinite mercy in Jesus Christ our Lord.

We offer unto Thee our common supplications for the good estate of Thy Church throughout the world; that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good Spirit, that all who profess themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Send down upon all ministers of the Gospel, and upon all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of Thy grace, and that they may truly please Thee, pour upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing.

Most heartily we beseech Thee, with Thy favor to behold the President [and Congress] of the United States, and all others in authority; and so replenish them with Thy grace, that they may always incline to Thy will, and walk in Thy way. Prosper all good counsels and all just works, that peace and happiness, truth and righteousness, religion and piety, may be established among us throughout all generations.

We humbly entreat Thee also for all sorts and conditions of men; that Thou wouldest be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them, Thy saving health unto all nations.

May it please Thee to preserve all that travel by land or water; to succor all that are in peril or need; and to satisfy the wants of all Thy creatures.

We also commend to Thy fatherly goodness all those who are in any way afflicted or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions.

* Here special Supplications, Intercessions, and Prayers may be made.

Hear us, most merciful God, in these our humble requests, which we offer up unto Thee in the Name of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

VIII.

MERCIFUL God, Heavenly Father, Who hast commanded us to meet together in Thy Name, and in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, to ask of Thee what is requisite and profitable for us and for all men, and hast graciously promised to hear our prayers and grant our requests: We present ourselves before Thy Divine Majesty, beseeching Thee to pardon our sins and unrighteousness, and to quicken our hearts by Thy Holy Spirit, that, with all confidence, we may ask of Thee whatsoever things are needful to Thy Church and to all men, and surely obtain the same to our profit and Thy praise.

For Thy Church and people, we pray: Save and defend them from the power of those whom Thou hast not sent, and send them Pastors and teachers who shall faithfully seek Thy scattered sheep, bring them to the Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd, and diligently build them up in all Thy will and pleasure, that all ungodliness and wicked works, and all heresies, schisms, and false religion may be done away; and that, in the unity of the true faith and the Confession of Thy dear Son, we may be one in Him, and dwell together in love, to the honor of Thy Name, and the good of our fellow-men.

For all in authority, especially for all who bear rule over us, we pray: Grant that they may be Thine indeed, put down all evil, and uphold and further all good, that we, being delivered from the fear of our enemies, may serve Thee in all holiness and righteousness.

And as it is Thy will to be a Saviour to the whole world, we also pray for all sorts and conditions of men: Draw to Thy dear Son those who are yet far from

Him, and grant that those whom Thou hast drawn to Him may daily grow in grace, and in the knowledge of the Lord.

For all who are in any trouble or sorrow, we pray: Comfort them in their distresses, and send them speedy deliverance out of all their afflictions; and help us to lay to heart Thy fatherly chastenings, that we may judge ourselves and amend our ways, that we come not under Thy judgments.

Grant, also, that we, who are here assembled for Thy worship, may hold fast Thy Word, die unto self, and be wholly given to Thy dear Son our Saviour, Who by His bitter sufferings and death hath redeemed us from sin and condemnation, and by His glorious Resurrection and Ascension hath brought us to oneness with Himself and with His Church.

† If there be no Communion the Prayer may here end with the Lord's Prayer; but, if there be a Communion, it shall conclude as follows:

May the holy Sacrament of His Body and Blood be meat and drink to us unto eternal life, that we may live in Him, and He in us, to the hallowing of Thy Name, the furtherance of Thy Kingdom, and the doing of Thy Will with cheerfulness and love, as it is done in heaven.

Give us also our daily bread, and all things that pertain to our bodily comfort, health, and peace; and grant us grace to use the same to Thy honor and glory.

And forgive us, O Lord, our daily faults, as we now before Thee forgive those who in any way have harmed us; and suffer not our adversary the devil to prevail against us, but deliver us from him, and from all evil; for Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 130.

Antiphon: If Thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities; O Lord, who shall stand?

OUT of the depths || have I cried unto | Thee, | O | Lord.

Lord, | hear my | voice: || let Thine ears be attentive to the | voice of my | suppli-cations.

If Thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities; || O | Lord | who shall | stand?

But there is for-giveness with Thee; || that | Thou | mayest be | feared.

I wait for the Lord, my | soul doth | wait; || and in His | Word | do I | hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord, more than they that | watch for the | morning; || I say, more than | they that | watch for the | morning.

Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with the | Lord there is | mercy; || and with | Him is | plenteous re-demption.

And He shall re-deem | Israel; || from | all .. his in-iqui-ties.

Psalm 90.

Antiphon: So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

LORD, Thou hast been our | dwelling | place; || in | all | gener- | ations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the | earth and the | world; || even from everlasting to ever- | lasting, | Thou art | God.

Thou turnest man | to de- | struction; || and sayest, Re- | turn, ye | children of | men.

For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when | it is | past; ||
and as a | watch | in the | night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they | are as a | sleep; || in the morning they are like | grass which |
groweth | up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and |
groweth | up; || in the evening it | is cut down, and | withereth.

For we are consumed | by Thine | anger; || and by Thy | wrath | are we | troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities be- | fore |
Thee; || our secret sins in the | light of |
Thy | countenance.

For all our days are passed away | in Thy | wrath; || we spend our years | as a | tale that is | told.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten: and if by reason of strength they be | fourscore | years; | yet is their strength labor and sorrow,
for it is soon cut off, and we | fly a- | way.

Who knoweth the power | of Thine |
anger; || even according to Thy fear, |
so is | Thy | wrath.

So teach us to | number our | days; ||
that we may apply our | hearts | unto | wisdom:

Return, O | Lord, how | long; || and let it repent Thee con- | cerning | Thy | servants.

O satisfy us early | with Thy | mercy; || that we may rejoice and be | glad | all our | days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein Thou hast af- | flicted | us; || and the years wherein | we have | seen | evil.

Let Thy work appear | unto Thy | servants; || and Thy | glory | unto their | children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God | be up- | on us; || and establish Thou
the | work of our | hands up- | on us;

Yea, the | work of our | hands; || establish | Thou | it.

¶ Instead of these the following Psalms may also be used.

Psalm 39.

Antiphon: So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not | with my | tongue; || I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the | wicked | is be- | fore me.

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, | even from | good; || and my | sorrow | was | stirred.

My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the | fire | burnèd; || then |
spake I | with my | tongue,

Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, | what it |
is; || that I may | know how | frail I | am.

Behold, thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth; and mine age is as | nothing be- | fore Thee; || verily every man at his best state is | alto- | gether | vanity.

Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are dis- | quieted.. in | vain; || he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not | who shall | gather | them.

And now, Lord, what | wait I | for? || my | hope | is in | Thee.

Deliver me from | all my trans- | gression; || make me not the re- | proach | of the | foolish.

I was dumb, I opened | not my | mouth; || be- | cause | Thou | didst it.

Remove Thy stroke a- | way from | me; || I am consumed by the | blow of |
Thine | hand.

When Thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, Thou makest his beauty to consume away | like a | moth; || surely every | man is | vani-|ty.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not Thy | peace at my | tears; || for I am a stranger with Thee, and a sojourner, as | all my | fathers | were.

O spare me, that I may re-|cover | strength; || before I go | hence, and |
be no | more.

Psalm 73.

Antiphon: The Lord is the strength of my life.

TRULY God is | good to | Israel; ||
even to such as | are | of a clean | heart.
of thy | children.

But as for me, my feet were | almost | gone; || my | steps had | well nigh | slipped.
When I thought to | know | this, || it was | too | painful | for me;

For I was envious | at the | foolish, || when I saw the pros-|peri-ty | of the | wicked.

For there are no bands | in their | death: || but their | strength | • is | firm.
Surely Thou didst set them in | slippery | places; || Thou castedst them |
down | into de-|struction.

They are not in trouble as | other | men; || neither are they | plagued like |
other | men.
How are they brought into desolation,
as | in a | moment! || they are utterly
con-|sumed | with | terrors.

Therefore pride compasseth them about as a | chain; || violence covereth |
them | as a | garment.
As a dream when one a-|wak-|eth; ||
so, O Lord, when Thou awakest, Thou shalt de-|spise their | image.

Their eyes stand | out with | fatness; ||
they have | more than | heart could | wish.
Thus my | heart was | grieved, || and
I was | pricked | in my | reins.

They are corrupt, and speak wickedly con-|cerning op-|pression; || they | speak |
lofti-|ly.
So foolish was I, and | igno-| rant; ||
I was | as a | beast be-|fore Thee.

Nevertheless I am continually | with |
Thee: || Thou hast holden | me by | my right | hand.
Nevertheless I am continually | with |
Thee: || Thou hast holden | me by | my right | hand.

They set their mouth a-|gainst the | heavens, || and their tongue | walketh |
through the | earth.
Thou shalt guide me | with Thy | counsel, || and afterward re-|ceive | me
to | glory.

Therefore his people re-|turn | hither: ||
and waters of a full | cup .. are wrung |
out to | them.
Whom have I in | heaven but | Thee? || and there is none upon earth that | I de-|sire be-|sides Thee.

And they say, How doth | God | know? || and is there knowledge | in the | Most | High?
My flesh and my | heart | faileth; ||
but God is the strength of my heart,
and my | portion | for | ever.

Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper | in the | world; || they in-|crease
in | rich-|es.
For, lo, they that are far from | Thee shall | perish: || Thou hast destroyed all them that go a | whoring | from | Thee.

Verily I have cleansed my | heart in vain, || and washed my | hands in | innocency.
But it is good for me to draw | near to | God: || I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may de-|clare | all
Thy | works.

For all the day long | have I .. been | plagued, || and | chastened | every | morning.
If I say, I will | speak | thus; || behold,

¶ A Hymn may be sung after the Psalm, and then shall one or more Scripture Lessons be read.

The Lessons.

(1 Thess. 4: 13-18.) (1 Cor. 15: 12-19, 20-26, 35-38.) (John 11: 21-27.) (Luke 7: 11-15.) (Matt. 9: 18, 19, 23-26.) 14: 1-16; 19: 21-27; Eccles. 12: 1-7; Matt. 25: 31-43; Mark 10: 13-16; John 6: 37-40, 47-54; Rom. 6: 8-11; 14: 7-9.

¶ Instead of these Lessons, one or more of the following, or any other suitable Scripture Lessons, may be read:

2 Sam. 12: 16-23; 2 Kings 4: 18-37; Job

¶ After the Lesson may follow the Responsory, or other suitable Anthem or Hymn.

¶ For the Responsories see pp. 162-164.

¶ After the Lesson and Responsory or Hymn, may follow the Address, if one be made.

THE ADDRESS.

¶ Then may a Canticle be sung, and an Antiphon may be sung with it. The Nunc Dimittis, Benedictus, Song of Hezekiah, or the Beatitudes, may be used, as here followeth.

ANTIPHONS TO THE CANTICLE.

¶ The number in brackets refers to the Antiphons as set to music, pages 74-80. When the Antiphon is sung, the Tone belonging to it must be used for the Canticle.

I. O quam gloriosum. (33.)

O HOW glorious is that kingdom wherein all the saints do rejoice with Christ. They are clothed with white robes, and follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.

II. Venientes venient. (38.)

HE that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

III. Audivi vocem. (40.)

I HEARD a voice from heaven saying, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

IV. Ego sum resurrectio. (39.)

I AM the Resurrection and the life; He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die.

V. Absterget Deus omnem lachrymam. (37.)

GOD shall wipe away all tears from the eyes of His saints. And there shall be no more sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

THE CANTICLE.

¶ See pages 144-152 for suitable Chants when the Antiphon is omitted.

1. Nunc Dimittis. Antiphon 40.

LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant | vation; || Which Thou hast prepared bede- | part in | peace; || Ac- | cording | to fore the | face of | all | people:
Thy | Word.

For mine eyes have seen | Thy Sal- | A Light to | lighten the | Gentiles; ||
And the glory | of Thy | people | Israel.

II. Benedictus. Antiphon 39, or 37.

BLESSED be the Lord | God of | Is- | since the | world be- | gan:
rael; || for He hath visited | and re- | That we should be saved | from our deemed His | people. || enemies; || and from the | hand of | all
And hath raised up a horn of sal- | va- | that | hate us:

tion | for us; || in the house of His | servant | Da- | vid:

As He spake by the mouth of His | holy | prophets; || which have been |

To perform the mercy promised | to our | fathers; || and to re- | member His |
holy | covenant:

The oath which He sware to our father | Abra-|ham; || that He would |

grant | unto | us;

That we, being delivered out of the |
hand of our | enemies; || might | serve
Him | without | fear,

In holiness and righteousness be-|fore |
Him; || all the | days of | our | life.

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet | of the | Highest; || for thou shalt go before the face of the | Lord to pre-|pare His | ways:

To give knowledge of salvation | unto
His | people; || by the re-|mission | of their | sins,

Through the tender mercy | of our |
God; || whereby the Dayspring from
on | high hath | visited | us,

To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the | shadow of | death; ||
to guide our feet | into the | way of | peace.

III. Song of Hezekiah. Antiphon 38, or 37.

I SAID in the cutting off of my days,
I shall go to the | gates of the | grave; || I am deprived of the | residue | of my | years.

I said, I shall not see the Lord, even
the Lord, in the | land of the | living; ||
I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants | of the | world.

Mine age | is de-|parted; || and is removed from me | as a | shepherd's | tent.

I have cut off like a | weaver my | life; ||
He will cut me off with pining sickness;
from day even to night wilt Thou | make an | end of | me.

I reckoned until morning; as a lion so
will He break | all my | bones: || from day even to night wilt Thou | make an | end of | me.

Like a crane or a swallow, so did I
chatter; I did mourn as a dove: mine
eyes fail with | looking | upward; || O Lord,
I am oppressed | under-|take for | me.

What shall I say? He hath both spoken | unto | me; || and Him-|self hath |
done | it.

I shall go softly | all my | years; || in the | bitterness | of my | soul.

O Lord, by these things | men | live; ||
and in all these things | is the | life of my | spirit.

So wilt Thou re-|cover | me; || and | make | me to | live.

Behold, for peace I had | great | bitterness; || but Thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the | pit | of cor-|ruption.

For Thou hast cast | all my | sins ||
be-|hind | Thy | back.

For the grave cannot praise Thee;
death cannot | celebrate | Thee. || They that go down into the pit cannot | hope for | Thy | truth.

The living, the living, | he shall | praise Thee; || as | I do | this | day.

The father | to the | children; || shall make | known | Thy | truth.

The Lord was | ready to | save me; || therefore we will sing my songs | all the | days of our | life.

IV. The Beatitudes. Antiphon 33, or 37.

BLESSED are the | poor in | spirit; ||
for | theirs.. is the | kingdom.. of | heaven.

Blessed are | they that | mourn; || for |
they.. shall be | comfort-|ed.

Blessed | are the | meek; || for | they..
shall in-|herit.. the | earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after | righteous- | ness; || for |
they | shall be | filled.

Blessed are the | merci-| ful; || for |
they.. shall ob-|tain | mercy.

Blessed are the | pure in | heart; ||

for | they shall | see | God.

Blessed are the | peace-|makers; || for they shall be called the | children | of | God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for | 'righteousness' | sake; || for | theirs..
is the | kingdom.. of | heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for |
My | sake; || rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is | your re-|ward in | heaven.

¶ Then shall Prayer be offered as here followeth, or selections therefrom.

M. O God the Father in heaven.

M. O God the Son, Redeemer of the world. M. O God, the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

¶ Then shall all say together:

OUR Father, Who art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us: And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Minister.

ALMIGHTY God, Who by the death of Thy Son hast overcome sin and death, and by His resurrection hast restored innocence and everlasting life, to the end that we should be delivered from the dominion of the devil, and that by the power of the same resurrection our mortal bodies should be raised up from the dead; Grant that with our whole heart we may confidently believe this, and finally, with all Thy saints, be partakers of the joyful resurrection of the just; through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who by Thy Son hast promised us forgiveness of sin and deliverance from everlasting death: Strengthen us, we beseech Thee, by Thy Holy Spirit, that our trust in Thy grace in Christ Jesus may daily increase, and that with sure confidence we may hold fast the blessed hope that we shall not die, but only sleep, and at the last day be raised up unto everlasting life, through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, our heavenly Father, Who hast taught us by Thy holy Apostle not to sorrow overmuch for them that sleep in Jesus: Mercifully grant, that after this life, we, with all Thy saints, may be received into everlasting joy, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, Who hast appointed us to endure sufferings and death with our Lord Jesus Christ, before we enter with Him into glory: Grant us grace at all times to submit ourselves to Thy holy will, to continue steadfast in the true faith unto the end, and to find peace and joy in the blessed hope of the resurrection of the dead, and of the glory of the world to come; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Special Prayers or Supplications may here be made.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who wilt come again to judge the quick and the dead, and call forth all who sleep in the graves, either to the resurrection of life or the resurrection of condemnation: We beseech Thee to be gracious to us, and to raise us up to life everlasting, that we may be and abide with Thee forever; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

Bless we the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the Fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

ORDERS FOR MINISTERIAL ACTS.

¶ Then may the Minister say the Confession of Sins, as here followeth. The Congregation may say the Prayer with him.

The Confession of Sins.

Dear! Beloved! If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Let us therefore confess our sins unto God our heavenly Father, and humbly beseech Him, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

Almighty and most merciful Father; we poor miserable sinners acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty. We have provoked Thy wrath and indignation against us, and deserve at Thy hands present and everlasting punishment. But we do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; and we beseech Thee, of Thy great goodness, to be merciful unto us. Pardon and deliver us from all our sins, for the sake of the holy, innocent, and bitter sufferings and death of Thy dear Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ Then shall the Congregation sing or say the Kyrie.

Lord, have mercy upon us!
Christ, have mercy upon us!
Lord, have mercy upon us!

Or this :

O God the Father in heaven; have mercy upon us!

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world; have mercy upon us!

O God the Holy Ghost; have mercy upon us, and grant us Thy peace!

¶ Then the Minister, standing, shall pronounce

The Absolution.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, hath had mercy upon us, and for the sake of His dear Son, forgiveth us all our sins. To them that believe on His Name, He also giveth power to become the sons of God, and bestoweth upon them His Holy Spirit. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved. Grant us, O Lord, this salvation.

¶ Then shall the Congregation sing or say:
Amen.

REV. R. CALEY. FROM BEETHOVEN.

My soul doth magnify the Lord; || and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. ||

For He hath regarded || the low estate of His handmaiden. ||
For behold, from henceforth || all generations shall call me blessed. ||

For He that is mighty hath done to me great things: || and holy is His
Name. ||

And His mercy is on them that fear Him, || from generation to generation. ||

He hath showed strength with His arm: || He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. ||

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, || and exalted them of low degree. ||

He hath filled the hungry with good things, || and the rich He hath sent empty away. ||

He hath holpen His servant Israel, || in remembrance of His mercy: ||

As He spake to our fathers, || to Abraham, and to his seed, for ever. ||

Blessed be the Lord | God of | Israel; || for He hath visited | and redeemed His | people; ||

And hath raised up a horn of salvation | for us || in the house of His

As He spake by the mouth of His holy | prophets, || which have been since the | world be- | gan: ||

That we should be saved | from our enemies, || and from the | hand of | all that | hate us; ||

To perform the mercy promised | to our | fathers, || and to remember His |
holy | cove- | nant; ||

The oath which He swore to our father | Abra- | ham, || that He would |
grant | unto | us, ||

That we, being delivered out of the |

hand of our | enemies, || might | serve
Him | without | fear, ||

In holiness and righteousness before | Him, || all the | days of | our | life. ||

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet | of the | Highest: || for thou
shalt go before the face of the | Lord to pre- | pare His | ways; ||

To give knowledge of salvation | un-

Through the tender mercy | of our |

3. PSALM 95.

- 1 COME, sound His praise abroad,
And hymns of glory sing!
Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.
- 2 He formed the deeps unknown ;
He gave the seas their bound ;
The watery worlds are all His own,
And all the solid ground.

- 3 Come, worship at His throne ;
Come, bow before the Lord.
We are His work, and not our own :
He formed us by His word.
- 4 To-day attend His voice,
Nor dare provoke His rod ;
Come, like the people of His choice,
And own your gracious God.

4. PSALM 147.

- 1 PRAISE ye the Lord: 'tis good to raise
Our hearts and voices in His praise :
His nature and His works invite
To make this duty our delight.
- 2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem,
And gathers nations to His Name :
His mercy melts the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.
- 3 Great is our Lord, and great His might,
And all His glories infinite ;
He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
And treads the wicked to the dust.
- 4 His saints are lovely in His sight ;
He views His children with delight
He sees their hope, He knows their fear,
And finds and loves His image there.

 Highly exalt and honor Thee!
 Thy Name we worship and adore,

 The prophets swell the immortal song;

 Eternal anthems to Thy praise.

5 Vouchsafe, O Lord, we humbly pray,

IAMBIC. 8, 7.

10. Sey Lob und Ehr dem höchsten Gut.

1 SING praise to God who reigns above,
The God of all creation,
The God of power, the God of love,
The God of our salvation.
With healing balm my soul He fills,
And every faithless murmur stills;
To God all praise and glory!

2 The angel host, O King of kings,
Thy praise forever telling,
In earth and sky all living things
Beneath Thy shadow dwelling,

Adore the wisdom which could span,
And power which formed Creation's plan;
To God all praise and glory!

3 I cried to God in my distress,
His mercy heard me calling;
My Saviour saw my helplessness,
And kept my feet from falling;
For this, Lord, praise and thanks to Thee!
Praise God Most High, praise God with me!
To God all praise and glory!

4 Thus all my gladsome way along,
I'll sing aloud Thy praises,
That men may hear the grateful song
My voice unwearied raises:
Be joyful in the Lord, my heart!
Both soul and body, bear your part!
To God all praise and glory!

1 NOW thank we all our God,
 With heart and hands and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In whom His earth rejoices;
 Who from our mother's arms
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.

2 O may this bounteous God,
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever joyful hearts,
 And blessed peace to cheer us;
 And keep us in His grace,
 And guide us when perplexed,
 And free us from all ills,
 In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God
 The Father, now be given,
 The Son and Him who reigns
 With them in highest heaven;
 The One eternal God,
 Whom earth and heaven adore;
 For thus it was, is now,
 And shall be evermore!

1 SONGS of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose, when He Captive led, captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away ;
Songs of praise shall crown that day :
God will make new heavens and earth ;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And shall man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No ; — the Church delights to raise Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

1 MIGHTY God, while angels bless
Thee,
May a mortal lisp Thy Name?
Lord of men, as well as angels,
Thou art every creature's theme.

2 Lord of every land and nation,
Ancient of eternal days!
Sounded through the wide creation
Be Thy just and lawful praise.

3 For the grandeur of Thy nature,
Grand beyond a seraph's thought;
For created works of power,
Works with skill and kindness wrought:

4 For Thy Providence, that governs
Through Thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow:
Blessed be Thy gentle reign.

5 But Thy rich, Thy free Redemption, Dark through brightness all along —
Thought is poor, and poor expression:
Who dare sing that awful song!

6 From the highest throne in glory
To the Cross of deepest woe!
All to ransom guilty captives!
Flow, my praise, for ever flow.

2 O let me praise Thee whilst I live,

- 1 WHEN all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart
That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 3 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;

- And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.
- 4 When nature fails, and day and night
Divide Thy works no more,
My ever grateful heart, O Lord,
Thy mercy shall adore.
- 5 Through all eternity to Thee
A joyful song I'll raise:
But oh! eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise.

21. Splendor Paternæ Gloriæ.

- 1 O JESUS, Lord of heavenly grace,
Thou Brightness of Thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light,
Whose beams disperse the shades of night!
- 2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love,
Send down Thy radiance from above;
And to our inmost hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.
- 3 And we the Father's help will claim,
And sing the Father's glorious Name:
His powerful succor we implore,
That we may stand, to fall no more.
- 4 May He our actions deign to bless,
And loose the bonds of wickedness;
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And guide us safely to the end.
- 5 May faith, deep-rooted in the soul,
The flesh subdue, the mind control:
May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be joy and peace.
- 6 O hallowed thus be every day!
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noonday light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.
- 7 O Christ, with each returning morn,
Thine image to our hearts is borne:
O may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in Thee!

Let us see Thyself to-day!
Thou who camest from on high,
For our sins to bleed and die,
Help us now to cast aside
All that would our hearts divide;
With the Father and the Son
Let Thy living Church be one.

2 O, from earthly cares set free,
Let us find our rest in Thee!
May our cares and conflicts cease
In the calm of Sabbath peace,
That Thy people here below
Something of the bliss may know,
Something of the rest and love
In the Sabbath home above!

For a place and portion there!
Give my soul the spotless dress

Earthly cares and sorrows o'er,

But Thy grace so rich and free;

1 PLEASANT are Thy courts above,
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are Thy courts below,
In this land of sin and woe.
O, my spirit longs and fain
For the converse of Thy saints,
For the brightness of Thy face,
For Thy fulness, God of grace!

2 Happy souls! their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies:

On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach Thy throne at length,
At Thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

3 Lord, be mine this prize to win:
Guide me through a world of sin;
Keep me by Thy saving grace;
Give me at Thy side a place.
Sun and Shield alike Thou art;
Guide and guard my erring heart.

- 1 SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise Thy Name, give thanks,
To show Thy Love by morning light,
And talk of all Thy truth at night.
- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
No mortal cares shall seize my breast.
My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His Word.
- 3 And I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart;
When doubts and fears no more re-
To break my inward peace again.

And faith expects a sure return

Our hopes we place, | And joys above.

These hallowed courts shall ring!
Our voices we will raise,
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim | Both loud and long,
In joyful song, | That glorious Name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh:
In copious shower, | Each holy day,
On all who pray, | Thy blessing pour.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore,
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore.

A Sun without a sphere;
Thy time is now and evermore,
Thy place is everywhere.
- 5 How good art Thou, whose Goodness is
Our parent, nurse, and guide:
Whose streams do water paradise,

- 6 Thy hidden wonders, God of grace!
I humbly here adore;
Show me Thy glory and Thy face,
That I may praise Thee more.

70. PSALM 111.

- 1 SONGS of immortal praise belong
To my almighty God:
He hath my heart, and He my tongue,
To spread His Name abroad.
- 2 How great the works His Hand hath wrought!
How glorious in our sight!
And men in every age have sought
His wonders with delight.
- 3 How most exact is nature's frame!
How wise the eternal Mind!
His counsels never change the scheme
That His first thoughts designed.
- 4 When He redeemed the sons of men,
He fixed His covenant sure:
The orders that His lips pronounce
To endless years endure.
- 5 Nature and time and earth and skies
Thy heavenly skill proclaim.
What shall we do to make us wise,
But learn to read Thy Name?
- 6 To fear Thy power, to trust Thy grace,
Is our divinest skill;
And he's the wisest of our race,
Who best obeys Thy will.

Before the world begun; [blest
Of Thine Eternity possesst
Before Time's glass did run.
Thou needest none Thy praise to sing,
As if Thy joy could fade:
Couldst Thou have needed anything,
Thou couldst have nothing made.
- 2 Great and good God, it pleas'd Thee
Thy Godhead to declare;
And what Thy goodness did decree,
Thy greatness did prepare:
Thou spak'st, and heaven and earth appeared,
And answered to Thy call;
As if their Maker's voice they heard,
Which is the creature's all.
- 3 To whom, Lord, should I sing, but
The Maker of my tongue? [Thee,
Lo! other lords would seize on me,
But I to Thee belong.
As waters haste unto their sea,
And earth unto its earth,
So let my soul return to Thee,
From whom it had its birth.
- 4 But ah! I'm fallen on the night,
And cannot come to Thee:
Yet speak the word, "Let there be Light!"
It shall enlighten me.
And let Thy Word, most mighty Lord,
Thy fallen creature raise;
O make me o'er again, and I
Shall sing my Maker's praise.

And streams shall murmur all around.

- 1 HOW helpless guilty nature lies,
Unconscious of its load!
The heart unchanged can never rise
To happiness and God.
- 2 Can aught beneath a power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis Thine, Almighty Saviour, Thine
To form the heart anew.
- 3 'Tis Thine the passions to recall,
And upwards bid them rise;

- And make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes.
- 4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live,
A beam of heaven, a vital ray
'Tis Thine alone to give.
- 5 O change these wretched hearts of
And give them life divine! [ours,
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be Thine.

1 LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise
Thee

For the bliss Thy love bestows,
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows.

Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise:

Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my love be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought
thee,

Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee

From the paths of death away.

Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained Cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:

Low before Thy footstool kneeling,
Deign Thy suppliant's prayer to bless.

Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise:

And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth Thy praise.

And every soul Thy grace may prove,
Loved with an everlasting Love.

For me, and all Thine hands have
An everlasting ransom paid. [made,

O kindle, Lord, most holy,
Thy lamp within my breast,
To do in spirit lowly
All that may please Thee best.
- 2 Thy Zion palms is strewing,
And branches fresh and fair;
My heart, its powers renewing,
An anthem shall prepare.
My soul puts off her sadness
Thy glories to proclaim;
With all her strength and gladness
She fain would serve Thy Name.
- 3 I lay in fetters groaning,
Thou comest to set me free!
I stood, my shame bemoaning,
Thou comest to honor me!
A glory Thou dost give me,
A treasure safe on high,
That will not fail nor leave me
As earthly riches fly.
- 4 Love caused Thy Incarnation,
Love brought Thee down to me.
Thy thirst for my salvation
Procured my liberty.
O Love beyond all telling,
That led Thee to embrace,
In love all love excelling,

Who mourn o'er joys departed,

Is standing at the door;

When shall we its glories see?

6 Brightly doth Thy manger shine!

1 COMFORT, comfort ye my people,
 Speak ye peace, thus saith our God ;
 Comfort those who sit in darkness,
 Mourning 'neath their sorrows' load ;
 Speak ye to Jerusalem
 Of the peace that waits for them ;
 Tell her that her sins I cover,
 And her warfare now is over.

2 For the Herald's voice is crying
 In the desert far and near,
 Bidding all men to repentance,
 Since the kingdom now is here.
 O that warning cry obey !
 Now prepare for God a way !

Let the valleys rise to meet Him,
 And the hills bow down to greet Him.

3 Make ye straight what long was crooked,
 Make the rougher places plain :
 Let your hearts be true and humble,
 As befits His holy reign ;
 For the glory of the Lord
 Now o'er earth is shed abroad,
 And all flesh shall see the token,
 That His word is never broken.

 What the prophets' heart inspired,
 What they longed for many a year
 Stands fulfilled in glory here.

3 Abram's promised great reward,
 Zion's Helper, Jacob's Lord,

Him of twofold race behold,
 Truly come, as long foretold.

4 Welcome, O my Saviour, now !
 Hail ! my Portion, Lord, art Thou !
 Here too in my heart, I pray,—
 O prepare Thyself a way.

1 ONCE He came in blessing,
All our ills redressing,
Came in likeness lowly,
Son of God most holy;
Bore the Cross to save us,
Hope and freedom gave us.

2 Still He comes within us,
Still His voice would win us
From the sins that hurt us;
Would to Truth convert us
From our foolish errors,
Ere He comes in terrors.

3 Thus if thou hast known Him,
Not ashamed to own Him,
Nor dost love Him coldly,
But wilt trust Him boldly,
He will now receive thee,
Heal thee, and forgive thee.

4 He who well endureth,
Bright reward secureth;
Come then, O Lord Jesus,
From our sins release us;
Let us here confess Thee.
Till in heaven we bless Thee.

1 HARK, the glad sound, the Saviour comes,
 The Saviour promised long!
 Let every heart prepare a throne,
 And every voice a song.

2 On Him the Spirit, largely poured,
 Exerts His sacred fire;
 Wisdom and might, and zeal and love,
 His holy breast inspire.

3 He comes the prisoners to release,
 In Satan's bondage held:
 The gates of brass before Him burst,
 The iron fetters yield.

4 He comes from thickest films of vice
 To clear the mental ray,
 And on the eyeballs of the blind
 To pour celestial day.

5 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
 The bleeding soul to cure,

And with the treasures of His grace
 To enrich the humble poor.

6 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace!
 Thy welcome shall proclaim;
 And heaven's eternal arches ring
 With Thy beloved Name.

- 1 GOOD news from heaven the angels bring,
 Glad tidings to the earth they sing:
 To us this day a Child is given,
 To crown us with the joy of heaven.
- 2 This is the Christ, our God and Lord,
 Who in all need shall aid afford;
 He will Himself our Saviour be,
 From all our sins to set us free.
- 3 To us that blessedness He brings,
 Which from the Father's bounty springs:
 That in the heavenly realm we may
 With Him enjoy eternal day
- 4 All hail, Thou noble Guest, this morn,
 Whose Love did not the sinner scorn:
 In my distress Thou comest to me;
 What thanks shall I return to Thee?
- 5 Were earth a thousand times as fair,
 Beset with gold and jewels rare,
 She yet were far too poor to be
 A narrow cradle, Lord, for Thee.
- 6 Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child,
 Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled,
 Within my heart, that it may be
 A quiet chamber kept for Thee.
- 7 Praise God upon His heavenly throne,
 Who gave to us His only Son:
 For this His hosts, on joyful wing,
 A blest New Year of mercy sing.

- 1 REJOICE, rejoice, ye Christians,
With all your hearts, this morn !
O hear the blessed tidings,
"The Lord, the Christ, is born,"
Now brought us by the angels
That stand about God's throne;
O lovely are the voices
That make such tidings known !
2 O hearken to their singing !
This Child shall be your Friend ;
The Father so hath willed it,
That thus your woes should end.
The Son is freely given,
That in Him ye may have
The Father's grace and blessing,
And know He loves to save.

- 3 Nor deem the form too lowly
That clothes Him at this hour ;
For know ye what it hideth ?
'Tis God's almighty power.
Though now within the manger
So poor and weak He lies,
He is the Lord of all things,
He reigns above the skies.
4 Sin, death, and hell, and Satan
Have lost the victory ;
This Child shall overthrow them,
As ye shall surely see.
Their wrath shall naught avail them ;
Fear not, their reign is o'er ;
This Child shall overthrow them,—
O hear, and doubt no more !

And Thou, O long-expected Guest,
Hast come at last to make us blest!
- 3 Now art Thou here: we know Thee now;
In lowly manger liest Thou:
A Child, yet makest all things great;
Poor, yet is earth Thy robe of state.
- 4 Now fearless I can look on Thee:
From sin and grief Thou set'st me free:
Thou bearest wrath, Thou conquerest death,
Fear turns to joy Thy glance beneath.
- 5 Thou art my Head, my Lord divine:
I am Thy member, wholly Thine;
And in Thy Spirit's strength would still Serve Thee according to Thy will.
- 6 Thus will I sing Thy praises here,

1 WHILE with ceaseless course the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here;

Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,
But how little, none can know.

2 As the wingéd arrow flies
Speedily, the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind;

Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream:
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise;
All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive,
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view.
Bless Thy Word to young and old,
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with Thee above.

Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright:
So, most gracious God, may we Evermore be led by Thee.
- 2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we, with willing feet,
Ever seek Thy mercy-seat.
- 3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we, with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,

Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.
- 4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.
- 5 In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light:
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing

 Had our wildered eyes enlightened:
 All our looks were earthward bent,
 All our strength on earth was spent.
- 3 But the Dayspring from on high
 Hath arisen with beams unclouded,
 And we see before it fly
 All the heavy gloom that shrouded
 This sad earth, where sin and woe
 Seemed to reign o'er all below.
- 4 Thy appearing, Lord, shall fill
 All my thoughts in sorrow's hour;
 Thy appearing, Lord, shall still
 All my dread of death's dark power;
 Whether joy or tears be mine,
 Through them still Thy light shall shine.
- 5 Let me, when my course is run,
 Calmly leave a world of sadness
 For the place that needs no sun,
 For Thou art its light and gladness;
 For the mansions fair and bright,
 Where Thy saints are crowned with light.

144. { "Wie soll ich Dich empfangen." } 122.
O how shall I receive Thee.

7, 6.

144. Herr Jesu, Licht der Heiden.

1 LIGHT of the Gentile nations,
Thy people's joy and love!
Drawn by Thy Spirit hither,
We gladly come to prove
Thy presence in Thy temple,
And wait with earnest mind,
As Simeon once had waited
His Saviour God to find.

2 Yes, Lord, Thy servants meet Thee,
Even now, in every place
Where Thy true Word hath promised
That they should see Thy face.
Thou yet wilt gently grant us,
Who gather round Thee here,
In faith's strong arms to bear Thee,
As once that aged seer.

3 Be Thou our Joy, our Brightness,
That shines mid pain and loss,
Our Sun in times of terror,
The glory round our cross:
A glow in sinking spirits,
A sunbeam in distress,
Physician, Friend in sickness,
In death our happiness.

4 Let us, O Lord, be faithful
With Simeon to the end,
That so his dying song may
From all our hearts ascend:
"O Lord, let now Thy servant
Depart in peace for aye,
Since I have seen my Saviour,
Have here beheld His day."

5 My Saviour, I behold Thee
Now with the eye of Faith:
No foe of Thee can rob me,
Though bitter words he saith.
Within Thy heart abiding,
As Thou dost dwell in me,
No pain, no death hath terrors
To part my soul from Thee!

145. O Jesu Christe, wahres Licht.

- 1 O CHRIST, our true and only Light,
Illumine those who sit in night;
Let those afar now hear Thy voice,
And in Thy fold with us rejoice.
- 2 Fill with the radiance of Thy grace
The souls now lost in error's maze,
And all, O Lord, whose secret minds,
Some dark delusion hurts and blinds.
- 3 And all who else have strayed from Thee,
O gently seek! Thy healing be
To every, wounded conscience given,
And let them also share Thy heaven.
- 4 O make the deaf to hear Thy Word,
And teach the dumb to speak, dear Lord,
Who dare not yet the faith avow,
Though secretly they hold it now.
- 5 Shine on the darkened and the cold,
Recall the wanderers to Thy fold,
Unite those now who walk apart,
Confirm the weak and doubting heart.
- 6 So they with us may evermore
Such grace with wondering thanks adore,
And endless praise to Thee be given,
By all Thy Church in earth and heaven.

146.

- 1 GREAT Father of mankind,
 We bless that wondrous grace
 Which could for Gentiles find Within Thy courts a place.
 How kind the care      For us to raise
 Our God displays,      A house of prayer!
- 2 Though once estrangéd far,
 We now approach the throne;
 For Jesus brings us near,
 And makes our cause His own:
 Strangers no more,      And find our home,
 To Thee we come,      And rest secure.
- 3 To Thee our souls we join,
 And love Thy sacred Name;
 No more our own, but Thine,
 We triumph in Thy claim.
 Our Father-King,      Our souls embrace,
 Thy covenant grace      Thy titles sing.
- 4 May all the nations throng
 To worship in Thy house;
 And Thou attend the song,
 And smile upon their vows;
 Indulgent still,      To join the choir
 Till earth conspire      On Zion's hill.

- 1    ARISE, O God, and shine,
       In all Thy saving might,
       And prosper each design
       To spread Thy glorious light:
       Let healing streams of mercy flow,
       That all the earth Thy truth may know.
- 2    Bring distant nations near,
       To sing Thy glorious praise;
       Let every people hear
       And learn Thy holy ways!
       Reign, mighty God, assert Thy cause,
       And govern by Thy righteous laws!
- 3    Put forth Thy glorious power,
       That Gentiles all may see,
       And earth present her store
       In converts born to Thee:
       God, our own God, His Church will bless,
       And fill the world with righteousness.
- 4    To God the only wise,
       The one immortal King,
       Let hallelujahs rise
       From every living thing:
       Let all that breathe, on every coast,
       Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

- 1 MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord!
I read my duty in Thy Word:
But in Thy life the law appears
Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was Thy truth, and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.
- 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of Thy prayer:
The desert Thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict, and Thy victory too.
- 4 Be Thou my pattern; make me bear
More of Thy gracious image here.
Then God the Judge shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

- 1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.
2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, as vile as he,
Wash all my sins away!
3 Dearly Lamb, Thy precious Blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.
4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,

Redeeming Love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

- 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing Thy power to save, [tongue,
When this poor lisping, stammering
Lies silent in the grave.
6 Lord, I believe Thou hast prepared (Unworthy though I be)
For me a blood-bought free reward,
A golden harp for me!
7 'Tis strung and tuned for endless years,
And formed by power divine
To sound in God the Father's ears
No other name but Thine.

Cleanse Thou me from guilt and sin,
Make me pure without, within;
Soul and body, at Thy word,
Be to saving health restored.

2 Flesh and blood, this mortal frame,
Thou wert pleased to wear the same:
Though Thy nature was divine,
Thou didst condescend to mine:
Let me for Thy mercy's sake,
Thy Divinity partake.

3 From the ruins of the Fall,
Me to grace and glory call:

With Thine image re-impress:
Thou didst stoop to earth for me:
Raise me up to heaven with Thee.

1 JESUS, Refuge of the weary,
Object of the spirit's love,
Fountain in life's desert dreary,
Saviour from the world above:
O how oft Thine eyes, offended,
Gaze upon the sinner's fall!
Yet upon the Cross extended,
Thou didst bear the pain of all.

2 Do we pass that Cross unheeding,
Breathing no repentant vow, [ing,
Though we see Thee wounded, bleed-
See Thy thorn-encircled brow?

Yet Thy sinless death has brought us
Life eternal, peace and rest;
Only what Thy grace has taught us
Calms the sinner's stormy breast.

3 Jesus, may our hearts be burning,
With more fervent love for Thee;
May our eyes be ever turning
To Thy Cross of agony;
Till in glory, parted never
From the blessed Saviour's side,
Graven in our hearts for ever,
Dwell the Cross, the Crucified.

- 1 SUFFERING Son of man, be near me,
In my sufferings to sustain ;
By Thy sorer griefs to cheer me,
By Thy more than mortal pain.
- 2 Call to mind that unknown anguish,
In Thy days of flesh below,
When Thy troubled soul did languish
Under a whole world of woe.
- 3 By Thy most severe temptation
In that dark Satanic hour ;
By Thy last mysterious Passion,
Screen me from the adverse power.
- 4 By Thy fainting in the garden,
By Thy dreadful Death, I pray,
Write upon my heart Thy pardon ;
Take my sins and fears away.
- 5 By the travail of Thy spirit,
By Thine outcry on the tree,
By Thine agonizing merit,
Gracious Lord, remember me !

 Low we bend the adoring knee;
 When repentant, to the skies
 Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
 O, by all Thy pains and woe
 Suffered once for man below,
 Bending from Thy throne on high,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 2 By Thy helpless infant years,
 By Thy life of want and tears,
 By Thy days of sore distress
 In the savage wilderness;
 By the dread mysterious hour
 Of the insulting tempter's power;
 Turn, O turn a favoring eye,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 3 By Thine hour of dire despair,
 By Thine agony of prayer;
 By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
 Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
 By the gloom that veiled the skies
 O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
 Listen to our humble cry,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 4 By Thy deep expiring groan;
 By the sad sepulchral stone;
 By the vault whose dark abode
 Held in vain the rising God;
 O, from earth to heaven restored,
 Mighty, reascended Lord,
 Listen, listen to the cry
 Of our solemn Litany!

     Ye that feel the tempter's power:
     Your Redeemer's conflict see;
     Watch with Him one bitter hour;
     Turn not from His griefs away;
     Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
- 2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
     View the Lord of life arraigned:
     O the wormwood and the gall!
     O the pangs His soul sustained!
     Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
     Learn of Him to bear the cross.
- 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb:
     There, adoring at His feet,
     Mark that miracle of time,
     God's own Sacrifice complete:
     "It is finished," hear Him cry:
     Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb,
     Where they laid His breathless clay;
     All is solitude and gloom;
     Who hath taken Him away?
     Christ is risen! — He meets our eyes:
     Saviour, teach us so to rise

Sing aloud in mournful strain,
Of the sorrows most amazing,
And the agonizing pain,
Which our Saviour
Sinless bore, for sinners slain.
- 2 He the ruthless scourge enduring,
Ransom for our sins to pay,
Sinners by His own stripes curing,
Raising those who wounded lay,
Bore our sorrows,
And removed our pains away.
- 3 He to liberty restored us
By the very bonds He bare;
And His nail-pierced limbs afford us
Each a stream of mercy rare:
Lo! He draws us
To the Cross, and keeps us there.
- 4 When His painful life was ended,
Ther the spear transfixed His side:
Blood and water thence descended,
Pouring forth a double tide:
This to cleanse us,
That to heal us is applied.
- 5 Jesus! may Thy promised blessing
Comfort to our souls afford;
May we, now Thy Love possessing,
And at length our full reward,
Ever praise Thee,
As our ever-glorious Lord!

* Verse 1.

186. So ruhest Du.

1 REST of the weary! Thou
Thyself art resting now,
Where lowly in Thy sepulchre Thou liest;
From out her deathly sleep
My soul doth start, to weep
So sad a wonder, that Thou, Saviour, diest!

2 Thy bitter anguish o'er,
To this dark tomb they bore
Thee, Life of life—Thee, Lord of all creation!
The hollow rocky cave
Must serve Thee for a grave,
Who wast Thyself the Rock of our salvation!

3 O Prince of Life! I know
That when I too lie low,
Thou wilt at last my soul from death awaken:
Wherefore I will not shrink
From the grave's awful brink;
The heart that trusts in Thee shall ne'er be shaken.

4 To me the darksome tomb
Is but a narrow room,
Where I may rest in peace, from sorrow free.
Thy Death shall give me power
To cry in that dark hour,
O Death! O Grave! where is your victory?

5 The grave can naught destroy;
Only the flesh can die,
And e'en the body triumphs o'er decay:
Clothed by Thy wondrous might
In robes of dazzling light,
This flesh shall burst the grave at that Last Day.

6 My Jesus, day by day,
Help me to watch and pray,
Beside the tomb where in my heart Thou'rt laid.
Thy bitter Death shall be
My constant memory,
My guide at last into death's awful shade.

1 THE day of Resurrection!
Earth, tell it out abroad!
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God!
From death to Life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection light:

And listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own “All hail!” — and hearing,
May raise the victor strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful!
Let earth her song begin!
Let all the world keep triumph,
And all that is therein:
In grateful exultation
Their notes let all things blend,
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

 Live and reign with Him in heaven.

 Hence will I, to Jesus living,
 Pure in heart and act abide,

- Praise to Him and glory giving.
 Freely God doth aid dispense;

- 4 Jesus lives! I know full well,
 Naught from me His Love shall sever;

 Part me now from Christ for ever.

 But the gate of Life immortal;

- 1 OUR Lord is risen from the dead ;
Our Jesus 'is gone up on high :
The powers of hell are captive led,
Dragged to the portals of the sky.
- 2 There His triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay :
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates !
Ye everlasting doors, give way !
- 3 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the radiant scene :
He claims these mansions as His right ;
Receive the King of Glory in.
- 4 Who is the King of Glory, who ?
The Lord, that all His foes o'ercame ;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew ;
And Jesus is the Conqueror's name.

1 CONQUERING Prince and Lord of glory,
Majesty enthroned in light!

All the heavens are bowed before Thee,
Far beyond them spreads Thy might.
Shall I fall not at Thy feet,
And my heart with rapture beat,
Now Thy glory is displayed,
Thine ere yet the worlds were made?

2 As I watch Thee far ascending
To the right hand of the throne,
See the host before Thee bending,
Praising Thee in sweetest tone,
Shall not I too at Thy feet
Here the angels' strain repeat,
And rejoice that heaven doth ring,
With the triumph of my King?

- 3 Power and Spirit are o'erflowing;
On me also be they poured:
Every hinderance overthrowing,
Make Thy foes Thy footstool, Lord.
Yea, let earth's remotest end
To Thy righteous sceptre bend;
Make Thy way before Thee plain,
O'er all hearts and spirits reign.
- 4 Lo, Thy presence now is filling
All Thy Church in every place,
Fill my heart too, make me willing
In this season of Thy grace.
Come, Thou King of glory, come,
Deign to make my heart Thy home,
There abide and rule alone,
As upon Thy heavenly throne.

- 5 Thou art leaving me, yet bringing
God and heaven, most inly near:
From this earthly life upspringing,
As though still I saw Thee here,
Let my heart, transplanted hence,
Strange to earth, and time, and sense,
Dwell with Thee in heaven e'en now,
Where our only joy art Thou!

He lives, He lives, who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living Head.
- 2 He lives to bless me with His Love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to help in time of need.
- 3 He lives to grant me rich supply,
He lives to guide me with His eye,
He lives to comfort me when faint,
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.
- 4 He lives to silence all my fears,
He lives to wipe away my tears,
He lives to calm my troubled heart,
He lives, all blessings to impart.
- 5 He lives, and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives, my mansion to prepare;
He lives, to bring me safely there.
- 6 He lives, all glory to His Name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same;

I know that my Redeemer lives!

- 1 JESUS, my great High Priest,
Offered His Blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside.
His powerful Blood did once atone,
And now it pleads before the throne.
- 2 To this dear Surety's hand
Will I commit my cause;
He answers and fulfils
His Father's broken laws.
Behold my soul at freedom set;
My Surety paid the dreadful debt.
- 3 My Advocate appears
For my defence on high;
The Father bows His ears,
And lays His thunder by.
Not all that hell or sin can say,
Shall turn His heart, His Love away.
- 4 Should all the hosts of death,
And powers of hell unknown,
Put their most dreadful forms
Of rage and mischief on,
I shall be safe, for Christ displays
Superior power and guardian grace.

- 1    ARISE, my soul, arise,
       Shake off thy guilty fears;
       The bleeding Sacrifice
       In my behalf appears;
   Before the throne my Surety stands,
   My name is written on His hands.
- 2    He ever lives above,
       For me to intercede;
       His all-redeeming Love,
       His precious Blood to plead;
   His Blood atoned for all our race,
   And sprinkles now the throne of grace.
- 3    Five bleeding wounds He bears,
       Received on Calvary;
       They pour effectual prayers,
       They strongly speak for me;
   Forgive him, O forgive, they cry,
   Nor let that ransomed sinner die!
- 4    The Father hears Him pray,
       His dear anointed One;
       He cannot turn away
       The Presence of His Son;
   His Spirit answers to the Blood,
   And tells me I am born of God.
- 5    My God is reconciled,
       His pardoning voice I hear:
       He owns me for His child,
       I can no longer fear;
   With confidence I now draw nigh,
   And Father, Abba Father! cry.

- 1 WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
 And days are dark and friends are few,
 On Him I lean, who, not in vain,
 Experienced every human pain;
 He sees my wants, allays my fears,
 And counts and treasures up my tears.
- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
 To fly the good I would pursue,
 Or do the sin I would not do;
 Still He, who felt temptation's power,
 Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.
- 3 When vexing thoughts within me rise,
 And sore dismayed, my spirit dies,
 Still He, who once vouchsafed to bear
 The sickening anguish of despair,
 Shall sweetly soothe, shall gently dry,
 The throbbing heart, the streaming eye.
- 4 When sorrowing o'er some stone I bend,
 Which covers what was once a friend:
 And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
 Divides me for a little while;
 Thou, Saviour, seest the tears I shed,
 For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.
- 5 And O, when I have safely past
 Through every conflict but the last,
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside
 My painful bed, for Thou hast died;
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe the latest tear away.

- 1 LET earth and heaven combine,
Angels and men agree,
To praise in songs divine
The incarnate Deity:
To adore the all-atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesus' Name.
- 2 Jesus! transporting sound!
The joy of earth and heaven;
No other help is found,
No other name is given,
By which we can salvation have;
But Jesus came the world to save.
- 3 For me and all mankind
The Lamb of God was slain:
My Lord His life resigned
For every soul of man:
Loving to all, He none passed by,
He would not have one sinner die.
- 4 O unexampled Love!
O all-redeeming grace!
How swiftly didst Thou move
To save a fallen race!
What shall I do to make it known,
What Thou for all mankind hast done?

- 1 ONE there is above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend.
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end.
They who once His kindness prove,
Find it everlasting Love.
- 2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But this Saviour died to have us
Reconciled in Him to God:
This was boundless Love indeed:
Jesus is a Friend in need.
- 3 When He lived on earth abaséd,
Friend of sinners was His name:
Now, above all glory raiséd,
He rejoices in the same:
Still He calls them brethren, friends,
And to all their wants attends.
- 4 O for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love.
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above:
But when home our souls are brought,
We will love Thee as we ought.

1 HOW sweet the Name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

3 Dear Name! the Rock on which I build,
My Shield and Hiding-place;
My never-failing Treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.

4 By Thee my prayers acceptance gain,
Although with sin defiled:
Satan accuses me in vain,
And I am owned a child.

5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But, when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

6 Till then, I would Thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of Thy Name
Refresh my soul in death.

- 1 LORD, and whither shall we go?
Thou alone hast words of life!
In our stormy griefs below,
Who, but Thou, can heal the strife
Sin and sorrow round us bring,
In life's vale while wandering?
2 Blessed Christ! embodied Word!
Thou alone art Life and Light:
Saints who have Thy truth preferred
Walk in peace, and worship right:
Thou alone to sin canst say,
"I am Love, the Living Way."
3 Sun of Grace, O ever shine [lead!
Round our paths, where'er they Midnight feels a ray divine
Breaking through the darkest need,
If we hear, when most dismayed,
"It is I, be not afraid!"
4 Pardon, peace, and purity,
Gifts without, and grace within,
Love and light which set us free
From the curse and chain of sin—
These, Emmanuel, Thou canst give,
While upon Thy words we live.
5 Not a want, Thou canst not fill;
Not a fear, Thou wilt not tame;
If, indeed, repentance will Rest upon Thy glorious Name,
High o'er every guilt and grave
Shall Redemption's banner wave!
6 Saviour, be our Polar Star,
Shaded by no sinful night;
Shed upon us from afar
Living beams of holy light:
When we reach our radiant home,
We shall know the Way we come.

Spare Thy Sheep, in mercy spare me?
Wilt Thou not, as shepherds do,
In Thine arms rejoicing bear me,
Bear me where all troubles cease,
Home to folds of joy and peace?
- 2 See, on earth's wide desert way,
How my truant steps mislead me;
Bring me back, no more to stray,
In Thine own green pastures feed me;
Gather me within the fold,
Where Thy lambs Thy light behold.
- 3 With Thy flock I long to be,
With the flock to whom 'tis given,
Safe to feed, and, praising Thee,
Roam the happy plains of heaven:
Free from fear of sinful stain,
They can never stray again.
- 4 Lord, I here am sore beset,
Fears at every step confound me;
Lo! my foes have spread their net,
And with craft and might surround me;
Such their snares on every side,
Safe Thy sheep can ne'er abide.
- 5 Jesus, Lord! my Shepherd true,
O from wolves Thy sheep deliver;
Help, as shepherds wont to do,
From their jaws preserve me ever.
Bid Thy trembling wanderer come
To his everlasting home.

1 JESUS, Lover of my soul,
 Let me to Thy bosom fly,
 While the nearer waters roll,
 While the tempest still is high!
 Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
 Till the storm of life is past;
 Safe into the haven guide;
 O receive my soul at last!

2 Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on Thee:
 Leave, ah, leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me!
 All my trust on Thee is stayed,
 All my help from Thee I bring:
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
 More than all in Thee I find:
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is Thy Name;
 I am all unrighteousness:
 False and full of sin I am;
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
 Grace to cover all my sin;
 Let the healing streams abound;
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the Fountain art,
 Freely let me take of Thee:
 Spring Thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity.

- 1 DAY divine, when in the temple
To the first disciples came Glory new and treasure ample,
Mighty gifts and tongues of flame!
Day to happy souls commended,
When the Holy Ghost was given,
When the Comforter descended,
Bringing down the joy of heaven!
- 2 Lord, to-day Thy people learneth
No new wonder, no strange tale;
Lord, to-day Thy people yearneth
Here the Holy Ghost to hail!

- O'er again to write the story
Our weak trembling souls aspire:
Unto us may come the glory,
Full on us may fall the fire!
- 3 Hath the Holy Ghost been holden
By those ancient saints alone?
Only may the ages olden
Call the Comforter their own?
Ah, their portion we inherit,
Ours the sorrow, ours the sin:
We beseech the Holy Spirit;
We the Comforter would win.

- 4 We have often grieved Thee sore;
Never let us grieve Thee more.
Thou the feeble canst protect,
Thou the wandering canst direct.
- 5 We are dark — be Thou our Light,
We are blind — be Thou our Sight.
Be our Comfort in distress,
Guide us through the wilderness.

1 COME, Holy Ghost, in love
Shed on us from above
Thine own bright ray!
Divinely good Thou art;
Thy sacred gifts impart
To gladden each sad heart:
O come to-day!

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest,
With soothing power:
Rest, which the weary know,
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow,
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow,—
Cheer us, this hour!

3 Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast:

We know no dawn but Thine;
Send forth Thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest!

4 Exalt our low desires;
Extinguish passion's fires;
Heal every wound:
Our stubborn spirits bend;
Our icy coldness end;
Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

5 Come, all the faithful bless;
Let all, who Christ confess,
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

2 Lord, by the brightness of Thy light,

Of every land and every tongue:

3 Thou strong Defence, Thou holy Light,
Teach us to know our God aright,
And call Him Father from the heart:
The Word of life and truth impart:

4 That we may love not doctrines strange,
Nor e'er to other teachers range,
But Jesus for our Master own, [alone.
And put our trust in Him [in Him]

5 Thou sacred Ardor, Comfort sweet,

6 Lord, make us ready with Thy powers;
Strengthen the flesh in weaker hours,

249. O Heil'ger Geist, kehr' bei uns ein.

- 1 O HOLY Spirit, enter in,
Among these hearts Thy work begin,
Thy temple deign to make us;
Sun of the soul, Thou Light Divine,
Around and in us brightly shine,
To strength and gladness wake us.
Where Thou shinest, Life from heaven
There is given.
We before Thee
For that precious gift implore Thee.
- 2 Left to ourselves we shall but stray;
O lead us on the narrow way,
With wisest counsel guide us,
And give us steadfastness, that we May henceforth truly follow Thee,
Whatever woes betide us:
Heal Thou gently, Hearts now broken,
Give some token
Thou art near us,
Whom we trust to light and cheer us.
- 3 O mighty Rock! O Source of Life,
Let Thy dear Word, 'mid doubt and
Be so within us burning, [strife,
That we be faithful unto death,
In Thy pure love and holy faith,
From Thee true wisdom learning!
- Lord, Thy graces, On us shower,
By Thy power
Christ confessing,
Let us win His grace and blessing.
- 4 O gentle Dew, from heaven now fall
With power upon the hearts of all,
Thy tenderness instilling; [bound,
That heart to heart more closely
Fruitful in kindly deeds be found,
The law of love fulfilling; [Thee,
No wrath, no strife, Here shall grieve
We receive Thee,
Where Thou livest
Peace and love and joy Thou givest.
- 5 Grant that our days, while life shall
In purest holiness be past; [last,
Our minds so rule and strengthen
That they may rise o'er things of earth,
The hopes and joys that here have birth;
And if our course Thou lengthen,
Keep Thou pure, Lord, From offences,
Heart and senses;
Blessed Spirit,
Bid us thus true life inherit.

- 1 WITH songs of sacred joy
 Extol His glorious Name,
 Who reared the spacious earth,
 And raised our ruined frame.
 He built the Church who spread the sky;
 Sing and exalt His honors high.
- 2 See the Foundation laid
 By Power and Love divine;
 Jesus, His first-born Son,
 How bright His glories shine!
 Low He descends, in dust He lies,
 That from His tomb a Church might rise.
- 3 But He for ever lives,
 Nor for Himself alone;
 Each saint new life derives
 From Him the living Stone.
 His influence spreads through every

     And all fear of want remove.
     Who can faint while such a river
     Ever flows their thirst to assuage ?
     Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
     Never fails from age to age.
- 3 Saviour, if of Zion's city
     I, through grace, a member am,
     Let the world deride or pity,
     I will glory in Thy Name.
     Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
     All his boasted pomp and show ;
     Solid joys and lasting treasure
     None but Zion's children know.

267.

- 1 O ZION, tune thy voice,
 And raise thy hands on high.
 Tell all the earth thy joys,
 And boast salvation nigh.
 Cheerful in God, | While rays divine
 Arise and shine, | Stream all abroad.
- 2 He gilds thy mourning face
 With beams that cannot fade;
 His all-resplendent grace
 He pours around thy head.
 The nations round | With lustre new,
 Thy form shall view, | Divinely crowned.
- 3 In honor to His Name,
 Reflect that sacred light,
 And loud that grace proclaim
 Which makes thy darkness bright.
 Pursue His praise, | In worlds above
 Till sovereign Love | Thy glory raise.
- 4 There, on His holy hill,
 A brighter Sun shall rise,
 And with His radiance fill
 Those fairer, purer skies;
 While round His throne, | In nobler spheres
 Ten thousand stars | His influence own

268. Verzage nicht, du Häuflein klein.

1 FEAR not, O little flock, the foe
Who madly seeks your overthrow;
Dread not his rage and power:
What though your courage sometimes faints,
His seeming triumph o'er God's saints
Lasts but a little hour.

2 Be of good cheer; your cause belongs
To Him who can avenge your wrongs;
Leave it to Him, our Lord.
Though hidden yet from mortal eyes,
Salvation shall for you arise:
He girdeth on His sword!

3 As true as God's own Word is true,
Not earth nor hell with all their crew
Against us shall prevail.
A jest and byword are they grown:
God is with us; we are His own;
Our victory cannot fail.

4 Amen, Lord Jesus, grant our prayer!
Great Captain, now Thine arm make
Fight for us once again! [bare;
So shall Thy saints and martyrs raise
A mighty chorus to Thy praise,
World without end. Amen.

1 SEE the vineyard Thou hast planted,
 God of mercy, Lord of hosts!
 Let Thy people's prayer be granted,
 Keep it safe from hostile boasts.
 Hear Thy people when they pray,
 Keep Thy vineyard night and day!

2 Drooping plants revive and nourish;
 Let them thrive beneath Thy hand;
 Let the weak grow strong and flourish,
 Blooming fair at Thy command:
 Let the fruitful yield Thee more,
 Laden with a richer store.

3 Further, Lord, be Thou entreated;
 Plant the barren waste around.
 Let Thy work be thus completed,
 And no fruitless spot be found.
 Let the earth a vineyard be,
 Consecrated, Lord, to Thee!

 Accept from every one of us

 Be still Thy servants' constant Guide,
 Direct our whole behavior.
 Thy statutes to Thy Church declare,
 Still watch o'er its salvation:
 Each member make Thy special care
 And aid him in his station.

With Thy wonted loving-kindness
Hear Thy servants as they pray ;
And Thy fullest benediction
Shed within these walls alway.
- 3 Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain,
What they gain from Thee for ever
With the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.

1 COME Thou now, and be among us,
Lord and Maker, while we pray:

Let Thy presence fill the temple
Which we dedicate to-day;
And, Thyself its Consecrator,
Dwell within its walls away.

2 Grant that all Thy faithful people
May Thy truer temple be;
Neither flesh, nor soul, nor spirit,
Know another Lord than Thee;
But, to Thee once dedicated,
Serve Thee everlastingly.

3 Bright be here the Monarch's altar,
With the presents that we bring;
Held in holy veneration,
Rich with many an offering;

Ever hallowed, ever quiet,
Ever dear to God its King.

4 Here our souls, as Thy true altars,
Deign to hallow and to bless,
O Thou future Judge of all men,
With Thy grace and holiness:
That Thy gifts sent down from heaven,
We may evermore possess.

5* Praise and honor to the Father;
Praise and honor to the Son;
Praise and honor to the Spirit,

- 1 O'ER those gloomy hills of darkness
     Look, my soul, be still and gaze :
     All thè promises do travail
     With a glorious day of grace.
     Blessed Jubilee,
     Let thy glorious morning dawn.
- 2 Let the Indian, let the Negro,
     Let the rude Barbarian see
     That divine and glorious conquest,
     Once obtained on Calvary ;
     Let the Gospel
     Wide resound from pole to pole.
- 3 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,
     Grant them, Lord, the glorious light,
     And from eastern coast to western
     May the morning chase the night ;
     And redemption,
     Freely purchased, win the day.
- 4 May the glorious day approaching,
     Thine eternal Love proclaim,
     And the everlasting Gospel
     Spread abroad Thy holy Name,
     O'er the borders
     Of the great Emmanuel's land.
- 5 Fly abroad, thou mighty Gospel,
     Win and conquer, never cease ;
     May thy lasting wide dominions

- 1 SAVIOUR, sprinkle many nations,
 Fruitful let Thy sorrows be!
 By Thy pains and consolations
 Draw the Gentiles unto Thee!
 Of Thy Cross the wondrous story
 Be it to the nations told;
 Let them see Thee in Thy glory,
 And Thy mercy manifold!
- 2 Far and wide, though all unknowing,
 Pants for Thee each mortal breast:
 Human tears for Thee are flowing,
 Human hearts in Thee would rest.
 Thirsting as for dews of even,
 As the new-mown grass for rain,
 Thee they seek, as God of heaven,
 Thee as Man, for sinners slain.

- 3 Saviour! lo, the isles are waiting,
 Stretched the hand, and strained the sight,
 For Thy spirit new-creating,
 Love's pure flame, and wisdom's light.
 Give the word, and of the preacher
 Speed the foot, and touch the tongue,
 Till on earth, by every creature,
 Glory to the Lamb be sung.

 Give power and unction from above,

 Confusion, order, in Thy path;
 Souls without strength inspire with might;
 Bid mercy triumph over wrath.
- 4 Baptize the nations; far and nigh
 The triumphs of the Cross record;
 The Name of Jesus glorify,
 Till every kindred call Him Lord.

308. PSALM 19.

- 1 I LOVE the volume of Thy Word:
What light and joy those leaves afford
To souls benighted and distrest!
Thy precepts guide my doubtful way;
Thy fear forbids my feet to stray;
Thy promise leads my heart to rest.
- 2 From the discoveries of Thy Law
The perfect rules of life I draw;
These are my study and delight:
Not honey so invites the taste,
Nor gold that hath the furnace passed
Appears so pleasing to the sight.
- 3 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering eyes,
And warn me where my danger lies;
But 'tis Thy blessed Gospel, Lord,
That makes my guilty conscience clean,
Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
And gives a free, but large reward.
- 4 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
My God, forgive my secret faults,
And from presumptuous sins restrain
Accept my poor attempts of praise,
That I have read Thy Book of grace
And book of nature not in vain.

1 THY Word, O Lord, like gentle dews,
Falls soft on hearts that pine;
Lord, to Thy garden ne'er refuse
This heavenly balm of Thine.
Watered by Thee, let every tree
Forth blossom to Thy praise,
By grace of Thine bear fruit divine,
Through all the coming days.

2 Thy Word is like a flaming sword,
A wedge that cleaveth stone;
Keen as a fire, so burns Thy Word,
And pierceth flesh and bone.
Let it go forth o'er all the earth,
To cleanse our hearts within,
To show Thy power in Satan's hour
And break the might of sin.

3 Thy Word, a wondrous guiding star,
On pilgrim hearts doth rise,
Leads those to God who dwell afar,
And makes the simple wise.
Let not its light e'er sink in night;
In every spirit shine,
That none may miss heaven's final bliss,
Led by Thy light divine.

{Blessed Jesus, at Thy word.

7, 8, 8.

318. Liebster Jesu, wir sind hier.

1 BLESSED Jesus, here we stand,
Met to do as Thou hast spoken;
And this child, at Thy command,
Now we bring to Thee, in token
That to Thee it here is given;
For of such shall be Thy heaven.

2 Yes, Thy warning voice is plain,
And we fain would keep it duly;
"He who is not born again,
Heart and life renewing truly,
Born of water and the Spirit,
Will my kingdom ne'er inherit."

3 Therefore hasten we to Thee;
Take the pledge we bring, O take
Let us here Thy glory see, [it!
And in tender pity make it

Now Thy child, and leave it never,
Thine on earth and Thine for ever.

4 Make it, Lord, Thy member now; [it;
Shepherd, take Thy lamb, and feed
Prince of peace, its peace be Thou;
Way of life, to heaven lead it;
Vine, this branch may nothing sever,
Be it graft in Thee for ever.

5 Now upon Thy heart it lies, [sure:
What our hearts so dearly trea-
Heavenward lead our burdened sighs, Pour Thy blessing without measure;
Write the name we now have given,
Write it in the book of heaven.

319. O Vaterherz.

1 FATHER, who hast created all
In wisest love, we pray,
Look on this babe, who at Thy call
Is entering on life's way.
Bend o'er it now with blessing fraught, [naught.
And make Thou something out of 2 O Son, who diedst for us, behold,

We bring our child to Thee!
Great Shepherd, take it to Thy fold,
Thine own for aye to be:
Defend it through this earthly strife,
And lead it on the path of life.

3 Spirit, who broodest o'er the wave,
Descend upon this child:
Give endless life, its spirit lave
With waters undefiled:
Grant it, while yet a babe, to be
A child of God, a home for Thee!

4 O God, what Thou command'st is done:
We speak, but Thine the might:
This child, which scarce hath seen
O pour on it Thy light, [the sun,
In faith and hope, in joy and love,
Thou Sun of all below, above!

322.

1 BLESSED Saviour, who hast taught
I should live to Thee alone; [me
All these years Thy hand hath brought me,

Since I first was made Thine own.
At the Font my vows were spoken
By my parents in the Lord;
That my vows shall be unbroken,
At the Altar I record.

2 I would trust in Thy protecting,
Wholly rest upon Thine arm;
Follow wholly Thy directing,
O my only Guard from harm!

Meet me now with Thy salvation,
In Thy Church's ordered way;
Let me feel Thy Confirmation
In Thy truth and fear to-day:

3 So that might and firmness gaining,
Hope in danger, joy in grief,
Now and evermore remaining
In the catholic belief,
Resting in my Saviour's merit,
Strengthened with the Spirit's strength,
With Thy Church I may inherit
All my Father's joy at length.

323. Ich bin getauft auf Deinen Namen.

1 FATHER, Son, and Holy Spirit,
I'm baptized in Thy dear Name;
In the seed Thou dost inherit,
With the people Thou dost claim,
I am reckoned;
And for me the Saviour came.

2 Thou receivest me, O Father,
As a child and heir of Thine;
Jesus, Thou who diedst, yea, rather Ever livest, Thou art mine.
Thou, O Spirit,
Art my Guide, my light divine.

3 I have pledged, and would not falter,
Truth, obedience, love to Thee;
I have vows upon Thine altar,
Ever Thine alone to be;
And for ever
Sin and all its lusts to flee.

4 Gracious God, all Thou hast spoken
In this covenant shall take place;
But if I, alas! have broken
These my vows, hide not Thy face;
And from falling
O restore me by Thy grace!

5 Lord, to Thee I now surrender
All I have, and all I am;
Make my heart more true and tender,
Glorify in me Thy Name.
Let obedience
To Thy will be all my aim.

6 Help me in this high endeavor,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
Bind my heart to Thee for ever,
Till I join the heavenly host.
Living, dying,
Let me make in Thee my boast.

And thousands more, still on the way,
Around the board appear.
- 5 Yet are His house and heart so large,
That thousands more may come;
Nor could the wide assembling world
O'erfill the spacious room.
- 6 All things are ready: enter in,
Nor weak excuses frame.
Come, take your places at the feast,

- 1 THE Saviour calls; let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound.
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear;
Hope smiles reviving round.
- 2 For every thirsty, longing heart,
Here streams of bounty flow,
And life and health, and bliss impart,
To banish mortal woe.
- 3 Here springs of sacred pleasure rise,
To ease your every pain;
Immortal fountain! full supplies!
Nor shall you thirst in vain.
- 4 Ye sinners, come, 'tis mercy's voice;
The gracious call obey:
Mercy invites to heavenly joys,
And can you yet delay?
- 5 Dear Saviour, draw reluctant hearts;
To Thee let sinners fly,
And take the bliss Thy Love imparts,
And drink and never die.

346. REVELATION XXII. 17.

- 1 THE Spirit, in our hearts
Is whispering, "Sinner, come :"
The bride, the Church of Christ, proclaims
To all His children, "Come !"
- 2 Let him that heareth, say
To all about him, "Come !"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness
To Christ, the Fountain, come !
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
O let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life :
'Tis Jesus bids him come.
- 4 Lo, Jesus, who invites,
Declares "I quickly come ;"
Lord, even so ! I wait Thine hour ;
Jesus, my Saviour, come !

Come, and make my paths your choice :
I will guide you to your home ;

Balm that flows for every wound ;
Peace that ever shall endure ;
Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

All who feel your heavy load ;
Jesus calls His wanderers home ;
Hasten to your pardoning God.
- 2 Come, ye guilty souls oppress,
Answer to the Saviour's call :
"Come, and I will give you rest ;
Come, and I will save you all."
- 3 Jesus, full of truth and love,
We Thy kindest word obey :
Faithful let Thy mercies prove,
Take our load of guilt away.
- 4 Fain we would on Thee rely,
Cast on Thee our sin and care :
To Thine arms of mercy fly,
Find our lasting quiet there.
- 5 Lo, we come to Thee for ease :
True and gracious as Thou art,

I have sinned and gone astray,
I have multiplied transgression,
Chosen for myself my way.
Forced at last to see my errors,
Lord, I tremble at Thy terrors.
- 2 Yet though conscience' voice appall me,
Father, I will seek Thy face;
Though Thy child I dare not call me,
Yet receive me to Thy grace;
Do not for my sins forsake me,
Let not yet Thy wrath o'ertake me.
- 3 For Thy Son hath suffered for me,
And the Blood He shed for sin,
That can heal me and restore me,
Quench this burning fire within;
'Tis alone His Cross can vanquish
These dark fears and soothe this anguish.
- 4 Then on Him I cast my burden,
Sink it in the depths below!
Let me feel Thy gracious pardon,
Wash me, make me white as snow.

Make me only Thine for ever!

Lord, hear me, I implore Thee!
Bend down Thy gracious ear to me,
Let my prayer come before Thee!
- If Thou remember each misdeed,
If each should have its rightful meed,
Who may abide Thy presence?
- 2 Our pardon is Thy gift; Thy Love
And grace alone avail us. [move,
Our works could ne'er our guilt re-
The strictest life must fail us.
That none may boast himself of aught,
But own in fear Thy grace hath wrought
What in him seemeth righteous.
- 3 And thus my hope is in the Lord,
And not in mine own merit;
I rest upon His faithful word
To them of contrite spirit.
- 4 And though it tarry till the night,
And round till morning waken,
My heart shall ne'er mistrust Thy Nor count itself forsaken. [might,
Do thus, O ye of Israel's seed,
Ye of the Spirit born indeed,
Wait for your God's appearing.
- 5 Though great our sins and sore our woes,
His grace much more aboundeth;
His helping love no limit knows,
Our utmost need it soundeth.
Our kind and faithful Shepherd, He,
Who shall at last set Israel free

- 3 How blest are they who still abide
Close sheltered in Thy bleeding side!
Who life and strength from Thee derive,
And by Thee move, and in Thee live!
- 4 What are our works but sin and death,
Till Thou Thy quickening Spirit breathe?
Thou giv'st the power Thy grace to move;
O wondrous grace! O boundless Love!
- 5 How can it be, Thou heavenly King,
That Thou shouldst us to glory bring;
Make slaves the partners of Thy throne,
Decked with a never-fading crown?
- 6 Ah Lord, enlarge our scanty thought,
To know the wonders Thou hast wrought;
Unloose our stammering tongues, to tell
Thy Love immense, unsearchable!

1 NOW I have found the ground wherein

Sure my soul's anchor may remain;
The wounds of Jesus, for my sin
Before the world's foundation slain;
Whose mercy shall unshaken stay,
When heaven and earth are fled away.

2 Father, Thine everlasting grace
Our scanty thought surpasses far:
Thy heart still melts with tenderness,
Thine arms of love still open are,
Returning sinners to receive,
That mercy they may taste, and live.

3 O Love, Thou bottomless abyss!

My sins are swallowed up in Thee:
Covered is my unrighteousness,
No spot of guilt remains on me:
While Jesus' Blood, through earth and skies,
Mercy, free, boundless mercy, cries!

382. PSALM 119.

- 1 THOU art my portion, O my God !
Soon as I know Thy way,
My heart makes haste to obey Thy word,
And suffers no delay.
- 2 I choose the path of heavenly truth,
And glory in my choice ;
Not all the riches of the earth
Could make me so rejoice.
- 3 The testimonies of Thy grace
I set before mine eyes :
Thence I derive my daily strength,
And there my comfort lies.
- 4 If once I wander from Thy path
I think upon my ways ;
Then turn my feet to Thy commands,
And trust Thy pardoning grace.
- 5 Now I am Thine, for ever Thine :
O save Thy servant, Lord !
Thou art my Shield, my Hiding-place ;
My hope is in Thy Word.
- 6 Thou hast inclined this heart of mine
Thy statutes to fulfil ;
And thus, till mortal life shall end,
Would I perform Thy will.

- 1 JESUS, my Strength, my Hope,
On Thee I cast my care;
With humble confidence look up,
And know Thou hear'st my prayer.
Give me on Thee to wait,
Till I can all things do;
On Thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 2 I want a godly fear,
A quick discerning eye,
That looks to Thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly:
A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

- 3 I want a true regard,
A single, steady aim,
Unmoved by threatening or reward,
To Thee and Thy great Name:
A zealous, just concern
For Thine immortal praise;
A pure desire that all may learn
And glorify Thy grace.
- 4 I rest upon Thy Word;
Thy promise is for me:
My succor and salvation, Lord,
Shall surely come from Thee.
But let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
Till Thou my patient spirit guide
Into Thy perfect Love.

By whose sufficient grace
I lift my heart to things above,
And humbly seek Thy face:
Through Jesus Christ the Just
My faint desires receive,
And let me in Thy goodness trust,
And to Thy glory live.

- 2 Whate'er I speak or do,
Thy glory be my aim;
My offerings all be offered through
Thy ever-blessed Name:
Jesus, my single eye
Be fixed on Thee alone; [high
Thy Name be praised on earth, o.

Poor, unfriended, or unknown,
Fix my thoughts on things above;
Stay my heart on Thee alone.

To Thy will,— Thy will be done!
Give me, Lord, the perfect mind

O Sov'reign meek and lowly,

My Lord and Bridegroom, Thou hast

My heart to serve Thee solely!
Holy art Thou, Fair and glorious,
All victorious, Rich in blessing,
Rule and might o'er all possessing.

2 Thou Heavenly Brightness! Light

O deep within my heart now shine,
And make Thee there an altar!

Fill me with joy and strength to be

In love that cannot falter; [me,

Turn and bless me, For Thy gladness
Eye and heart here pine in sadness.

3 But if Thou look on me in love,
There straightway falls from God
A ray of purest pleasure; [above
Thy Word and Spirit, Flesh and

Refresh my soul with heavenly food,
Thou art my hidden treasure; [me,
Let Thy grace, Lord, Warm and cheer
O draw near me; Thou hast taught us
Thee to seek since Thou hast sought us!

4 Here will I rest, and hold it fast,
The Lord I love is First and Last,
The End as the Beginning!

Here I can calmly die, for Thou
Wilt raise me where Thou dwellest

Nothing desire or seek but Thee!

Dauntless to the high prize aspire;

- 1 O DRAW me, Saviour, after Thee !
So shall I run and never tire.
With gracious words still comfort me ;
Be Thou my Hope, my sole Desire.
Free me from every weight : nor fear
Nor sin can come, if Thou art here.
- 2 From all eternity, with Love
Unchangeable Thou hast me viewed.
Ere knew this beating heart to move,
Thy tender mercies me pursued.
Ever with me may they abide,
And close me in on every side.
- 3 Still let Thy Love point out my way ;
How wondrous things Thy Love hath wrought !
Still lead me, lest I go astray ;
Direct my work, inspire my thought ;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that Love is near.
- 4 In suffering be Thy Love my peace,
In weakness be Thy Love my power ;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that important hour,
In death as life be Thou my Guide,
And save me, who for me hast died !

Strengthen my feet, with steady pace
Still to press forward in Thy way ;

And help me still to say,

When death itself draws nigh,
To Thy dear wounded side

Leaning on Thee, to go
Where Thou before hast gone.
The rest as Thou shalt please:

All shall be well for me:
Each changing future scene

And fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my Guard and Guide,
Defends me from my fears.
Those wakeful eyes | Shall Israel keep
That never sleep | When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Shall take my health away,
If God be with me there.
Thou art my Sun, | To guard my head
And Thou my Shade, | By night or noon.

4 Hast Thou not given Thy word
To save my soul from death?
And can I trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath.

1 SOVEREIGN Ruler of the skies,
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in Thy hand,
All events at Thy command.

2 Thou didst form me in the womb;
Thou wilt guide me to the tomb:
All my times shall ever be Ordered by Thy wise decree.

3 Times of sickness, times of health;
Times of penury and wealth;
Times of trial and of grief;
Times of triumph and relief:

4 Times the tempter's power to prove,
Times to taste a Saviour's Love:
All must come, endure and end,
As shall please my heavenly Friend.

5 O Thou gracious, wise, and just!
Unto Thee my life I trust;
Know that Thou art God alone;
I and mine are all Thine own.

6* Thee at all times will I bless:
Having Thee, I all possess.
How can I bereaved be,
Since I cannot part with Thee?

1 IN holy contemplation

We sweetly now pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new.

Set free from present sorrow,

We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

2 It can bring with it nothing,

But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe His people too.
Beneath the spreading heavens
No creature but is fed;
And He who feeds the ravens
Will give His children bread.

3 Though vine nor fig tree neither

Their wonted fruit should bear;
Though all the field should wither,

Nor flocks nor herds be there:

Yet God the same abiding,

His praise shall tune my voice;

For while in Him confiding,

I cannot but rejoice.

431. Wer nur den lieben Gott lässt walten.

- 1 MY God, I leave to Thee my ways ;
 I hope in Thee whate'er betide,
 To find Thee in the evil days
 My all-sufficient Strength and Guide;
 Who trusts in God's unchanging Love
 Builds on the Rock that naught can move.
- 2 What can our anxious cares avail,
 Our never-ceasing moans and sighs?
 What can it help us to bewail
 Each painful moment as it flies?
 Our cross and trials do but press
 The heavier for our bitterness.
- 3 Help me my restless heart to still,
 And wait in cheerful hope, content
 To take whate'er Thy gracious Will,
 Thy all-discerning Love, hath sent;
 Nor doubt my inmost wants are known
 To Him who chose me for His own.
- 4 Thou know'st when joyful hours are best,
 And send'st them as Thou seest it meet:
 When I have borne the fiery test,
 And am made free from all deceit,
 Thou comest to me all unaware,
 And makest me own Thy loving care.
- 5 Help me to swerve not from Thy ways,
 But do my own part faithfully,
 And trust Thy promises of grace,
 That they may be fulfilled in me.
 Thou never wilt forsake at need
 The soul that trusts in Thee indeed.

433. Befiehl du deine Wege.

- 1 COMMIT thou all thy griefs
And ways into His hands,
To His sure Truth and tender care,
Who earth and heaven commands :
Who points the clouds their course,
Whom winds and seas obey,
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
He shall prepare thy way.
- 2 Thou on the Lord rely,
So safe shalt thou go on ;
Fix on His work thy steadfast eye,
So shall thy work be done.
No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care ;
To Him commend thy cause ; His ear
Attends the softest prayer.
- 3 Thy everlasting Truth,
Father, Thy ceaseless Love,
Sees all Thy children's wants, and knows
What best for each will prove.
And whatsoe'er Thou will'st,
Thou dost, O King of kings !
What Thy unerring Wisdom chose,
Thy Power to being brings.
- 4 Thou everywhere hast sway,
And all things serve Thy might ;
Thy every act pure blessing is,
Thy path unsullied light.
When Thou arisest, Lord,
What shall Thy work withstand ?
When all Thy children want Thou giv'st,
Who, who shall stay Thy hand ?

- 1 GIVE to the winds thy fears,
 Hope and be undismayed;
 God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears,
 God shall lift up thy head.
 Through waves and clouds and storms
 He gently clears thy way:
 Wait thou His time, so shall this night
 Soon end in joyous day.
- 2 Still heavy is thy heart?
 Still sink thy spirits down?
 Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
 And every care be gone.
 What though thou rulest not,
 Yet heaven and earth and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
 And ruleth all things well!

3 Leave to His sovereign sway
To choose and to command :
Soshalt thou wondering own, His way
How wise, how strong His hand !
Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully He the work hath wrought
That caused thy needless fear.

4 Thou seest our weakness, Lord,
Our hearts are known to Thee :
O lift Thou up the sinking hand,
Confirm the feeble knee !
Let us in life, in death,
Thy steadfast Truth declare,
And publish with our latest breath
Thy Love and guardian care !

1 MY faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine !
Now hear me while I pray ;
Take all my guilt away ;
O let me from this day
Be wholly Thine.

2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire ;
As Thou hast died for me,
O may my love to Thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my Guide ;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll ;
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove ;
O bear me safe above,

All to leave and follow Thee;
Destitute, despised, forsaken,
Thou, from hence, my All shalt be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought, or hoped, or known;
Yet how rich is my condition!
God and heaven are still my own.
- 2 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O, 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy Love is left to me;
O, 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

3 Take, my soul, thy full salvation;
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear.
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
 What a Father's smile is thine;
 What a Saviour died to win thee:
 Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

4 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thine earthly mission,
 Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,

For through many a foe
To our home we go!
- 3 When we seek relief
From a long-felt grief;
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring:
Show us that bright shore
Where we weep no more!
- 4 Jesus, still lead on,
Till our Rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland!

- 1 I WILL leave my Jesus never!
 On the Cross for me He died;
 Love shall draw me to Him ever,
 At His feet I will abide.
 Of my life the Light for ever,
 I will leave my Jesus never!
- 2 In His Name I stand acquitted
 While upon the earth I stay:
 What I have to Him committed
 He will keep until that day.
 Be His service my endeavor;
 I will leave my Jesus never!
- 3 Dwelling in His presence holy,
 I at length shall reach the place
 Where with all the saints in glory
 I shall see His lovely face;
 Nothing then but bliss for ever:
 I will leave my Jesus never!
- 4 Not the earth with all its treasure
 Could content this soul of mine;
 Not alone for heavenly pleasure
 Doth my thirsty spirit pine;
 For its Saviour yearning ever:
 I will leave my Jesus never!
- 5 From that living Fountain drinking,
 Walking always at His side,
 Christ shall lead me without sinking
 Through the river's rushing tide,
 With the blest to sing for ever;
 I will leave my Jesus never!

- 1 O THOU, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light!
Search, prove my heart: it pants for Thee:
O burst these bonds, and set it free.
- 2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross;
Nail my affections to the Cross!
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean, as Thou, my Lord, art clean.
- 3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be Thou my Light, be Thou my Way;
No foes, no violence I fear,
No fraud, while Thou, my God, art near.
- 4 When rising floods my soul o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
Jesus, Thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.
- 5 Saviour, where'er Thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untired, I'd follow Thee;
O let Thy hand support me still,
And lead me to Thy holy hill!
- 6 If rough and thorny be the way,
My strength proportion to my day;
Till toil and grief and pain shall cease,
Where all is calm, and joy and peace.

1 RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
Thy better portion trace;
Rise from transitory things
Toward heaven, thy native place.
Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source
So a soul that's born of God
Pants to view His glorious face;
Upward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon your Saviour will return,
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given;
All your sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

 Here I must toil and travail,
 Oft weary and opprest,
 But there my God shall lead me
 To everlasting rest.

2 There still my thoughts are dwelling,
 'Tis there I long to be ;
 Come, Lord, and call Thy servant
 To blessedness with Thee !

Come, bid my toils be ended,
 Let all my wanderings cease ;
 Call from the wayside lodging
 To the sweet home of peace !

3 There I shall dwell for ever,
 No more a stranger guest,
 With all Thy blood-bought children,
 In everlasting rest :
 The pilgrim toils forgotten,
 The pilgrim conflicts o'er,
 All earthly griefs behind us,
 Eternal joys before !

2 Still let Thy wisdom be my guide,

Still with me let Thy grace abide,

That I from Thee may never stray.

Let Thy Word richly in me dwell;

My joy to endure and do Thy will,
 Till perfect I am found in Thee.

Wise, beneficent, and kind!
Spread o'er nature's ample face,
Flows Thy goodness unconfined.2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring,
At Thine altars when we bow?
Grateful loving hearts, the spring
Whence the kind affections flow.3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store.4 Teach us, O Thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind;
Thus the accepted offering bring,
Love to Thee and all mankind.

Whate'er the gift may be:
All that we have is Thine alone,

As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first fruits give.

- 1 GOD of my life, to Thee I call!
Afflicted at Thy feet I fall;
When the great water-floods prevail,
Leave not my trembling heart to fail!
- 2 Friend of the friendless and the faint!
Where should I lodge my deep complaint?
Where but with Thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?
- 3 Did ever mourner plead with Thee,
And Thou refuse that mourner's plea?
Does not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek Thy face in vain?
- 4 That were a grief I could not bear,
Didst Thou not hear and answer prayer;
But a prayer-hearing, answering God,
Supports me under every load.
- 5 Fair is the lot that's cast for me;
I have an Advocate with Thee;
They whom the world caresses most
Have no such privilege to boast.
- 6 Poor though I be, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
And he is safe, and must succeed,
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

- 1 THOU art my Hiding-place, O Lord!
 On Thee I fix my trust,
 Encouraged by Thy holy Word,
 A feeble child of dust.
 I have no argument beside,
 I urge no other plea;
 And 'tis enough the Saviour died,
 The Saviour died for me.
- 2 When storms of fierce temptations beat,
 And furious foes assail,
 My refuge is the mercy-seat,
 My hope within the veil.
 From strife of tongues and bitter words
 My spirit flies to Thee:
 Joy to my heart the thought affords.
 My Saviour died for me.
- 3 'Mid trials heavy to be borne,
 When mortal strength is vain,
 A heart with grief and anguish torn,
 A body racked with pain:
 Ah, what could give the sufferer rest,
 Bid every murmur flee,
 But this, the witness in my breast
 That Jesus died for me?
- 4 And when Thy awful voice commands
 This body to decay,
 And life, in its last lingering sands,
 Is ebbing fast away,
 Then, though it be in accents weak,
 And faint and tremblingly,
 O give me strength in death to speak,
 "My Saviour died for me."

 My pardon speak, new peace impart;
 In love, remember me!

3 Temptations sore obstruct my way,
 And ills I cannot flee;
 O give me strength, Lord, as my day;
 For good, remember me!

4 Distrest with pain, disease, and grief,
 This feeble body see;
 Grant patience, rest, and kind relief;
 Hear, and remember me!

5 When in the solemn hour of death
 I wait Thy just decree:
 Be this the prayer of my last breath,
 Good Lord, remember me!

6 And when before Thy throne I stand
 And lift my soul to Thee: [hand,

- 1 AND let this feeble body fail,
 And let it droop or die;
 My soul shall quit the mournful vale
 And soar to worlds on high:
 Shall join the disembodied saints,
 And find its long-sought Rest,
 That only bliss for which it pants,
 In my Redeemer's breast.
- 2 In hope of that immortal crown,
 I now the Cross sustain,
 And gladly wander up and down,
 And smile at toil and pain:
 I suffer on my three-score years
 Till my Deliverer come,
 And wipe away His servant's tears,
 And take His exile home.
- 3 O what hath Jesus bought for me!
 Before my ravished eyes
 Rivers of life divine I see,
 And trees of paradise!
 I see a world of spirits bright,
 Who reap the pleasures there;
 They all are clothed in robes of white,
 And conquering palms they bear.
- 4 O what are all my sufferings here,
 If, Lord, Thou count me meet,
 With that enraptured host to appear,
 And worship at Thy feet!
 Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,
 Take life or friends away;
 But let me find them all again
 In that eternal day.

1 LORD, it belongs not to my care,
 Whether I die or live:

 That I may long obey;
 If short, yet why should I be sad
 To soar to endless day?

 Boundless in power and love.
 Our thanks we bring      Our hearts we raise
 In joy and praise,      To heaven's high King.

 May well Thy Love declare,
 From foes and fears at rest,
 Protected by Thy care.
 For this fair land,      Our thanks we pay,—
 For this bright day,      Gifts of Thy hand.
- 3 May every mountain height,
 Each vale and forest green,
 Shine in Thy Word's pure light,
 And its rich fruits be seen!
 May every tongue      And join to raise
 Be tuned to praise,      A grateful song.
- 4 Earth! hear thy Maker's voice,
 Thy great Redeemer own;
 Believe, obey, rejoice,
 And worship Him alone.
 Cast down thy pride,      And bow before
 Thy sin deplore,      The Crucified.

5 And when in power He comes,
 O may our native land,
 From all its rending tombs,
 Send forth a glorious band,
 A countless throng, | To heaven's high King
 Ever to sing | Salvation's song.

Thou didst indeed chastise us,
Yet still Thy anger spares,
And still Thy mercy tries us:
Once more our Father's hand
Doth bid our sorrows flee,
And peace rejoice our land:
Lord God, we worship Thee!

4 Lord God, we worship Thee!
And pray Thee, who hast blest us,
That we may live in peace,
And none henceforth molest us:
O crown us with Thy Love;
Fulfil our cry to Thee:
O Father, grant our prayer:
Lord God, we worship Thee!

1 LORD of the harvest ! once again
 We thank Thee for the ripened grain ;
 For crops safe carried, sent to cheer
 Thy servants through another year ;
 For all sweet holy thoughts supplied
 By seed-time, and by harvest-tide.

2 The bare dead grain, in autumn sown,
 Its robe of vernal green puts on ;
 Glad from its wintry grave it springs,
 Fresh garnished by the King of kings,
 So, Lord, to those who sleep in Thee
 Shall new and glorious bodies be.

3 Nor vainly of Thy Word we ask
 A lesson from the reaper's task ;
 So shall Thine angels issue forth ;
 The tares be burnt ; the just of earth,
 Playthings of sun and storm no more,
 Be gathered to their Father's store.

4 Daily, O Lord, our prayers be said,
 As Thou hast taught, for daily bread ;
 But not alone our bodies feed ;
 Supply our fainting spirits' need !
 O Bread of Life ! from day to day,
 Be Thou their Comfort, Food, and Stay !

The musical score is written for piano in a key of three flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) and 2/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system continues the melody. The third system begins with a crescendo (cres.) dynamic and ends with the instruction 'A - men.' The music features a mix of chords and moving lines, with some notes beamed together.

504. Was Gott thut, das ist wohlgethan.

- 1 WHAT our Father does is well :
 Blesséd truth His children tell !
 Though He send, for plenty, want,
 Though the harvest store be scant,
 Yet we rest upon His Love,
 Seeking better things above.
- 2 What our Father does is well :
 Shall the wilful heart rebel
 If a blessing He withhold
 In the field, or in the fold ?
 Is He not Himself to be
 All our Store eternally ?
- 3 What our Father does is well :
 Though He sadden hill and dell,
 Upward yet our praises rise
 For the strength His Word supplies.
 He has called us sons of God ;
 Can we murmur at His rod ?
- 4 What our Father does is well :
 May the thought within us dwell
 Though nor milk nor honey flow
 In our barren Canaan now,

God can save us in our need,
God can bless us, God can feed.

5 Therefore unto Him we raise
Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
To the Father and the Son
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Honor, might, and glory be,
Now and through eternity.

1 GOD who madest earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Who the day and night hast given,
Sun and moon and starry host,
Thou whose mighty hand sustains
Earth and all that she contains :

2 Praise to Thee my soul shall render,
Who this night hast guarded me ;
My omnipotent Defender,
Who from ill doth set me free ;
Free from danger, anguish, woe,
Free from the infernal foe.

3 Let the night of my transgression
With night's darkness pass away :
Jesus, into Thy possession
I resign myself to-day.
In Thy wounds I find relief
From my greatest sin and grief.

4 Grant that I may rise this morning,
From the lethargy of sin ;
So my soul, through Thy adorning,
Shall be glorious within ;

And I at the judgment day
Shall not be a cast-away.

5 Let my life and conversation
Be directed by Thy Word ;
Lord, Thy constant preservation
To Thy erring child afford.
No where but alone in Thee
From all harm can I be free.

6 Wholly to Thy blest protection
I commit my heart and mind.
Mighty God ! to Thy direction
Wholly may I be resigned.
Lord, my Shield, my Light divine,
O-accept, and own me Thine !

7 Lord, to me Thine angel sending,
Keep me from the subtle foe ;
From his craft and might defending,
Never let Thy wanderer go,
Till my final rest be come,
And Thine angel bear me home.

- 1 ABIDE with me! fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens: Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me!
- 3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word,
But as Thou dwell'st with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide with me.
- 4 Come not in terrors as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing on Thy wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea;
O Friend of sinners, thus abide with me!
- 5 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile,
And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee:
On to the close, O Lord, abide with me!
- 6 I need Thy presence every passing hour:
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!
- 7 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me!
- 8 Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Our staff and song:
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thine enduring Word,
Lead us where Thou hast trod;
Make our faith strong.
- 5 So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing:
Let all the holy throng
Who to Thy Church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our King!

527. Palm Sunday.

1 WHEN, His salvation bringing,
 To Zion Jesus came,
 The children all stood singing
 Hosanna to His Name.
 Nor did their zeal offend Him,
 But as He rode along,
 He let them still attend Him,
 And smiled to hear their song.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
 His love for children still,
 Though now as King He reigneth
 On Zion's heavenly hill:
 We'll flock around His banner,
 Who sits upon the throne,
 And cry aloud, "Hosanna
 To David's royal Son."

3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Might well hosanna raise.

But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They, too, shall be the Lord's.

528.

- 1 JESUS, when a little Child,
Taught us what we ought to be;
Holy, harmless, undefiled,
Was the Saviour's infancy;
All the Father's glory shone
In the person of His Son.
- 2 As in age and strength He grew,
Heavenly wisdom filled His breast;
Crowds attentive round Him drew,
Wondering at their infant Guest;
Gazed upon His lovely face,
Saw Him full of truth and grace.
- 3 In His heavenly Father's house,
Jesus spent His early days;
There He paid His solemn vows,
There proclaimed His Father's praise;
Thus it was His lot to gain
Favor both with God and man.
- 4 Father, guide our steps aright
In the way that Jesus trod;
May it be our great delight
To obey Thy will, O God!
Then to us shall soon be given
Endless bliss with Christ in heaven.

- 1 FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
From strife and tumult far;
From scenes where Satan wages still
His most successful war.

2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
With prayer and praise agree;
And seem by Thy sweet bounty made
For those who follow Thee.

3 There, if Thy Spirit touch the soul,
And grace her mean abode,
O with what peace, and joy, and love,
She communes with her God!

4 There, like the nightingale, she pours
Her solitary lays;
Nor asks a witness of her song,
Nor thirsts for human praise.

5 Author and Guardian of my life,

And, all harmonious names in one,

1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all His promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,

And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

- 1 OUR God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come;
Our Shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal Home!
- 2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 4 Thy word commands our flesh to dust:
"Return, ye sons of men;"
All nations rose from earth at first,
And turn to earth again.
- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 6 Like flowery fields the nations stand,
Pleased with the morning light:
The flowers beneath the mower's hand
Lie withering ere 'tis night.
- 7 Our God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while troubles
And our eternal Home! [last,

And humbly own to Thee,
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we!

2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As days and months increase;
And every beating pulse we tell
Leaves but the number less.

3 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave:

Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're travelling to the grave.

4 Dangers stand thick through all the

Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way :
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.
- 2 I would not live alway, thus fettered by sin,
Temptation without, and corruption within :
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.
- 3 I would not live alway ; no, welcome the tomb ;
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom :
There sweet be my rest, till He bid me arise
To hail Him in triumph descending the skies.
- 4 Who, who would live alway, away from his God ?
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns :
- 5 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,

 With joy and peace my death to face.

2 My God, I know not when I die ;
 What is the moment or the hour ;
 How soon the clay may broken lie,
 How quickly pass away the flower :
 Then may Thy child preparéd be
 Through time to meet eternity.

3 My God, I know not how I die ;
 For death has many ways to come,
 In dark mysterious agony,
 Or gently as a sleep to some.
 Just as Thou wilt, if but it be
 To bring me, blessed Lord, to Thee !

4 My God, I know not where I die,
 Where is my grave, beneath what strand ;
 Yet from its gloom I do rely
 To be delivered by Thy hand.
 Content, I take what spot is mine,
 Since all the earth, my Lord, is Thine.

- 5 My gracious God, when I must die,
 O bear my happy soul above,
 With Christ, my Lord, eternally
 To share Thy glory and Thy Love :
 Then comes it right and well to me,
 When, where, and how my death shall be.

My God, for Jesus' sake I pray

- 2 O Father, cover all my sins
With Jesus' merits, who alone
The pardon that I covet wins,
And makes His long-sought Rest my own.
My God, for Jesus' sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

I know in Christ I perish not.
He never will His own forget;

My God, for Jesus' sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.
- 4 And thus I live in God at peace,
And die without a thought of fear,

For through His Son my faith is clear;

 My last sad journey taken,
 Do Thou, Lord Jesus! by me stand,
 Let me not be forsaken.
 O Lord, my spirit I resign
 Into Thy loving hands divine;
 'Tis safe within Thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore,
 My sins may then appall me;
 Yet, though my conscience vex me sore,
 Despair shall not enthrall me:
 For as I draw my latest breath,
 I'll think, Lord Christ! upon Thy Death,
 And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain,
 Since Thou death's bonds hast severed;
 But hope with Thee to rise again,
 From fear of death delivered,
 For where Thou art, there I shall be.
 That I may ever live with Thee:
 This is my joy in dying.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go,
 My longing arms extending;
 So fall asleep in slumber deep,
 Slumber that knows no ending,
 Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
 Opens the gates of bliss, leads on
 To heaven, to life eternal.

I pray Thee, through that bitter woe,

Lead me from this dark vale beneath,
And shorten then the pangs of death.
- 4 Joyful my Resurrection be,

And hide my sins, Lord, from Thy face,
And give me Life, of Thy dear grace!
I trust Thee utterly, my Lord,
For Thou hast promised in Thy Word!

Help us to wait until Thou wilt

For His is the glory and life without end.
- 3 On earth with His own ones, the Giver of good,
Bestowing His blessing, a little while stood :
Now nothing can part us, nor distance, nor foes,
For lo ! He is with us, and who can oppose ?

- 4 So, Lord, we commit this our brother to Thee,
Whose body is dead, but whose spirit is free :
We know that thro' grace, when our life here is done,
We live still in Thee, and for ever in one.
- 5 All glory to Thee, Father, Spirit, and Son,
Who Three art in person, in substance but One,
In Whom we have victory over the grave,
Who lovest Thy people to pardon and save.

553. Ach, wie so sanft entschlüfst du.

- 1 AT length released from many woes,
How sweetly dost thou sleep!
How calm and peaceful thy repose,
While Christ thy soul doth keep!
- 2 In earth's wide field thy body now
We sow, which lifeless lies,
In sure and certain hope that thou
More glorious shalt arise.
- 3 Then rest thee in thy lowly bed,
Nor shall our hearts repine.
Thy toils and woes are finished :
A happy lot is thine.
- 4 The Bridegroom will not long delay ;
The Shepherd soon will come,
And take His cherished lamb away
To His eternal home.
- 5 Blest, who have Jesus' love esteemed
O'er every earthly thing ;
For none of all His flock redeemed
Will Jesus fail to bring.

- 1 THE precious seed of weeping
To-day we sow once more,
The form of one now sleeping,
Whose pilgrimage is o'er.
Ah, death but safely lands him
Where we too would attain;
Our Father's voice demands him,
And death to him is gain.
- 2 He has what we are wanting,
He sees what we believe;
The sins on earth so haunting
Have there no power to grieve;

- Safe in his Saviour's keeping,
Who sent him calm release;
'Tis only we are weeping,
He dwells in perfect peace.
- 3 The crown of life he weareth,
He bears the shining palm,
The "Holy, holy," shareth,
And joins the angels' psalm;
But we poor pilgrims wander
Still through this land of woe,
Till we shall meet him yonder,
And all his joy shall know.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand drest in living green:
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And view the Canaan that we love,
With unobscured eyes!
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

 It will not stay with me;
 Far over vale and mountain,
 Far over field and plain,
 It hastes to seek its Fountain
 And quit this world of pain.
- 2 O happy day, and yet far happier hour,
 When wilt thou come at last?
 When fearless to my Father's love and power,
 Whose promise standeth fast,
 My soul I gladly render,
 For surely will His hand
 Lead her with guidance tender
 To heaven her fatherland.
- 3 O Zion, hail! Bright city, now unfold
 The gates of grace to me!
 How many a time I longed for thee of old,
 Ere yet I was set free
 From yon dark life of sadness,
 Yon world of shadowy nought,
 And God had given the gladness,
 The heritage I sought.
- 4 O what the tribe, or what the glorious host,
 Comes sweeping swiftly down?
 The chosen ones on earth who wrought the most
 The Church's brightest crown,
 Our Lord hath sent to meet me,
 As in the far off years,
 Their words oft came to greet me
 In yonder land of tears.
- 5 Innumerable choirs before the shining throne
 Their joyful anthems raise,
 Till heaven's glad halls are echoing with the tone
 Of that great hymn of praise,
 And all its host rejoices,
 And all its blessed throng
 Unite their myriad voices
 In one eternal song.

- 1 JERUSALEM, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end
In joy, and peace, and thee?
- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?
- 3 O when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where evermore the angels sing,
Where sabbaths have no end?
- 4 There happier bowers than Eden's
Nor sin nor sorrow know: [bloom,

Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes

I onward press to you.

- 5 Why should I shrink from pain and
Or feel at death dismay? [woe,
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.

- 6 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.

- 7 Jerusalem, my happy home!
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

580. ("Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme.")

(Wake, awake, for night is flying.)

580. Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme.

- 1 WAKE, awake, for night is flying,
The watchmen on the heights are crying;
Awake, Jerusalem, at last!
Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices:
Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!
The Bridegroom comes, awake,
Your lamps with gladness take;
Hallelujah!
And for His marriage feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet Him there.
- 2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
And all her heart with joy is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
Ah come, Thou blessed Lord,
O Jesus, Son of God,
Hallelujah!
We follow till the halls we see
Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.
- 3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal,
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne;
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attained to hear
What there is ours.
But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymns of joy eternally.

1 HEAR what God the Lord hath spoken :

O my people, faint and few,
Comfortless, afflicted, broken,
Fair abodes I build for you.
Thorns of heartfelt tribulation
Shall no more perplex your ways :
You shall name your walls salvation,
And your gates shall all be praise.

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow ;
For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
All His bounty shall bestow.

Still in undisturbed possession,
Peace and righteousness shall reign :

Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye no more your suns descending,
Waning moons no more shall see ;
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in Me.
God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night :
He, the Lord, shall be your Glory,
God your everlasting Light.

1 WHAT are these in bright array,
 This innumerable throng,
 Round the altar night and day
 Hymning one triumphant song?
 "Worthy is the Lamb, once slain,
 Blessing, honor, glory, power,
 Wisdom, riches to obtain,
 New dominion every hour."

2 These through fiery trials trod;
 These from great affliction came;
 Now, before the throne of God,
 Sealed with His Almighty Name,
 Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor-palms in every hand,
 Through their great Redeemer's
 might,
 More than conquerors they stand.

3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed;
 Them the Lamb amidst the throne
 Shall to living fountains lead:
 Joy and gladness banish sighs;
 Perfect love dispels all fears;
 And for ever from their eyes
 God shall wipe away the tears.

1 THE goodly land I see,
With peace and plenty blest:
A land of sacred liberty,
And endless rest.

There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life for ever grow,
With mercy crowned.

2 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace;
On Zion's sacred height,
His kingdom still maintains;
And glorious, with His saints in light,
For ever reigns.

3 He keeps His own secure;
He guards them by His side;
Arrays in garments white and pure
His spotless Bride;
With streams of sacred bliss,
With groves of living joys,
With all the fruits of paradise,
He still supplies.

4 Before the great Three-One
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders He hath done
Through all their land:
The listening spheres attend,
And swell the growing fame;
And sing, in songs which never end,
The wondrous Name.

1 THE God who reigns on high,
The great archangels sing,
And "Holy, holy, holy," cry,
"Almighty King!
Who was and is the same,
And evermore shall be;
Jehovah Father, great I AM,
We worship Thee."

2 Before the Saviour's face
The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at His almighty grace,
For ever new:
He shows His prints of love;
They kindle to a flame, [above,
And sound, through all the worlds
The slaughtered Lamb.

3 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!"
They ever cry:
Hail, Abraham's God, and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise.

1 JERUSALEM the golden,
 With milk and honey blest,
 Beneath thy contemplation
 Sink heart and voice opprest :
 I know not, O I know not,
 What social joys are there !
 What radiance of glory,
 What light beyond compare !

2 And when I fain would sing them
 My spirit fails and faints,
 And vainly would it image
 The assembly of the saints.

They stand, those halls of Zion,
 Conjubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng :

3 There is the Throne of David ;
 And there, from care released,
 The song of them that triumph,
 The shout of them that feast ;
 And they who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight,
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white !

 O dear and future vision
 That eager hearts expect:
 Even now by faith I see thee:
 Even here thy walls discern:
 To thee my thoughts are kindled,
 And strive, and pant, and yearn.
- 2 Jerusalem the only,
 That look'st from heaven below,
 In thee is all my glory;
 In me is all my woe!

- And though my body may not,
 My spirit seeks thee fain,
 Till flesh and earth return me
 To earth and flesh again.
- 3 O land that seest no sorrow!
 O state that fear'st no strife!
 O princely land of glory!
 O realm and home of life!
 Exult, O dust and ashes,
 The Lord shall be thy part:
 His only, His for ever,
 Thou shalt be, and thou art!

- 1 THIS is the day of light,
Let there be light to-day;
O Dayspring, rise upon our night,
And chase its gloom away.
- 2 This is the day of rest,
Our failing strength renew!
On weary brain and troubled breast
Shed Thou Thy fresh'ning dew.
- 3 This is the day of peace,
Thy peace our spirits fill;

- Bid Thou all ill and discord cease,
The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer,
Let earth to heaven draw near;
Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there,
Come down to meet us here.
- 5 This is the first of days,
Send forth Thy quickening breath,
And wake dead souls to love and praise,
O Vanquisher of death!

592. Hallelujah schöner Morgen.

8, 7, 7. Tune 51, or 206.

- 1 ALLELUIA! Fairest morning!
Fairer than our words can say!
Down we lay the heavy burden
Of life's toil and care to-day:
While this morn of joy and love
Brings fresh vigor from above.
- 2 Sunday, full of holy glory!
Sweetest rest-day of the soul!
Light upon a world of darkness
From thy blessed moments roll!
Holy, happy, heavenly day,
Thou canst charm our grief away.

- 3 In the gladness of His worship
I will seek my joy to-day:
It is then I learn the fullness
Of the grace for which I pray,
When the word of life is given,
Like the Saviour's voice from heaven.
- 4 Let the day with Thee be ended,
As with Thee it has begun;
And Thy blessing, Lord, be granted,
Till earth's days and weeks are done:
That at last Thy servant may Keep eternal Sabbath-day.

- 1 O LORD, our languid souls inspire,
For here, we trust, Thou art!
Send down a coal of heavenly fire
To warm each waiting heart.
- 2 Dear Shepherd of Thy people, hear,
Thy presence now display;
As Thou hast given a place for prayer,
So give us hearts to pray.
- 3 Show us some tokens of Thy love,
Our fainting hearts to raise;

- And pour Thy blessings from above,
That we may render praise.
- 4 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.
- 5 May we in faith receive Thy Word,
In faith present our prayers,
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.

594. Closing.

- 1 SAVIOUR, again to Thy dear Name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
Once more we bless Thee ere our worship cease,
Then, lowly bending, wait Thy word of peace.
- 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy Name.
- 3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, thro' the coming night,
Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep Thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.
- 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

- 1 THE happy Christmas comes once more,
 The heavenly Guest is at the door,
 The blessed words the shepherds thrill,
 The joyous tidings: Peace, good-will.
- 2 The lowly Saviour meekly lies,
 Laid off the splendor of the skies;
 No crown bedecks His forehead fair,
 No pearl, nor gem, nor silk is there.
- 3 O holy Child, Thy manger gleams
 Till earth and heaven glow with its beams,
 Till midnight noon's broad light hath won,
 And Jacob's Star outshines the sun.
- 4 Thou Patriarch's joy, Thou Prophet's song,
 Thou heavenly Day-Spring, looked-for long,
 Thou Son of Man, Incarnate Word,
 Great David's Son, great David's Lord!
- 5 Come, Jesus, glorious heavenly Guest,
 Keep Thine own Christmas in our breast,
 Then David's harpstrings, hushed so long,
 Shall swell our Jubilee of song.

- 2 Cold on His cradle the dewdrops are shining,
Low lies His Head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.
- 3 Say, shall we yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would His favor secure;

Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

8. 7. 4. 7. Tune 23, or 25.

- 1 FROM Thy habitation holy,
Spirit of all truth, descend,
While we sinners, poor and lowly,
At Thy throne of mercy bend:
Help our weakness,
And a gracious answer send!
- 2 Come Thou, as the dew of Hermon
Softly falls on Zion's hill;
Let us in Thy strength determine
Henceforth to obey Thy will.
Dwell within us:
Let Thy grace our bosoms fill.

- 3 Brooding o'er us, as on chaos,
Cause our darkness to retreat;
Shine into our hearts, and lay us
Humbled at th<sup>e</sup> mercy-seat;
Guide us—use us
As Thy sovereign love sees meet.
- 4 When we tread the waves of Jordan,
O be near us, Sacred Guest!
Seal to us our hope of pardon;
Dove-like o'er each billow's crest
Do Thou hover,
Guiding to eternal rest.

603.

- 1 WITH broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
O God, be merciful to me!
- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed
Christ and His Cross my only plea;
O God, be merciful to me!
- 3 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee;
O God, be merciful to me!
- 4 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God hath been merciful to me.

Shall our wandering spirits go—

And eternal life to know?
- 2 Lord, to whom except to Thee
Shall we go when ills betide!
Who, except Thyself, can be [guide?
Hope, and help, and strength, and

- 3 Who can cleanse the soul from sin,
Hear the prayer, and seal the vow?
Who can fill the void within,
Blessed Saviour, who but Thou?
- 4 Therefore evermore I'll give Thanks and praise, my God, to Thee;
Evermore in Thee I live,
Evermore live Thou in me.

- 1 WEARY of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven, and long to enter in:
But there no evil thing may find a home;
And yet I hear a voice that bids me come.
- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land,
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet, there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

- 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Seems evil ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all.
- 4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near;
And His the Blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the Throne.
- 5 'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of Heaven, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.
- 6 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in Thy Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of Thy righteousness.

1 THEE, Jesus, suffering, crucified,
Thee, dead and in the grave,
Thee, risen, ascended, glorified,
With power all flesh to save:
O God Incarnate, Thee we pray,
By Thine own Life divine,
Wash Thou our many sins away
In that dear Blood of Thine.

2 Blest Saviour, from all fleshly taint
Our spirits purge within,
Nor suffer our sad hearts to faint
With unforgiven sin.

O, by Thy tears so meekly poured
For sorrows not Thine own,
Forth from our breasts, Eternal Lord,
Pluck out the heart of stone.

3 Our love from this world more and more
By Thy sweet grace withdraw,
To love Thee, praise Thee, and adore,
And muse upon Thy law.
So may we to Thy Holy Hill
In Thy blest time ascend;
And do Thou here control our will,
And guide us to the end.

1 SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the Cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.
Here I'd rest, forever viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

2 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before His Cross to lie,
While I see Divine compassion
Beaming in His gracious eye.

Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the Lamb I gaze;
Love I much? I've much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace.

3 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears His feet I'd bathe;
Constant still in faith abiding,
Life deriving through His death.
Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
Fix my thankful heart on Thee,
Till I taste Thy full salvation,
And Thine unveiled glory see.

H. M. Tune 147, or 265.

1 THE happy morn is come!
The Saviour leaves the grave!
He triumphs o'er the tomb,
Omnipotent to save.
Captivity is captive led,
Since Jesus liveth that was dead.

2 Who to our charge shall lay
Iniquity and guilt;
The curse is done away
By Him Whose blood was spilt;
Captivity is captive led,
Since Jesus liveth that was dead.

3 Conquered is Death and Hell;
 Believers now are free;
 The glorious tidings tell,
 Bear them o'er land and sea:
 Captivity is captive led,
 Since Jesus liveth that was dead.

4 All hail, blest Saviour, hail!
 The Resurrection, Thou!
 Thy kingdom ne'er shall fail;
 To Thee shall nations bow.
 Captivity is captive led,
 Since Jesus liveth that was dead.

1 ALLELUIA! Alleluia!
 Hearts to heaven, and voices raise;
 Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
 Sing to God a hymn of praise.
 He Who on the Cross a Victim
 For the world's salvation bled,
 Jesus Christ, the King of Glory,
 Now is risen from the dead!

2 Now the iron bars are broken;
 Christ from death to life is born,—
 Glorious life, and life immortal,
 On this holy Easter morn.

Christ hath triumphed, and we conquer
 By His mighty enterprise:
 We with Christ to life eternal
 By His Resurrection rise.

3 Christ is risen, we are risen:
 Shed on us Thy heavenly grace,
 Rain, and dew, and gleams of glory,
 From the brightness of Thy face;
 That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven,
 Here on earth may fruitful be,
 And by angel-hands be gathered,
 And be ever safe with Thee.

612. Christus ist erstanden.

1 CHRIST the Lord is risen again;
 Christ hath broken every chain;
 Hark, angelic voices cry,
 Singing evermore on high,
     Hallelujah!

2 He Who gave for us His life,
 Who for us endured the strife,
 Is our Paschal Lamb to-day;
 We, too, sing for joy, and say,
     Hallelujah!

3 He Who bore all pain and loss
 Comfortless upon the Cross,

Lives in glory now on high,
 Pleads for us and hears our cry:
     Hallelujah!

4 He Who slumbered in the grave,
 Is exalted now to save;
 Now through Christendom it rings
 That the Lamb is King of kings.
     Hallelujah!

5 Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
 Christ, Thy ransomed people feed;
 Take our sins and guilt away,
 That we all may sing for aye,
     Hallelujah!

The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun,
Hallelujah!

2 The pow'rs of Death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed;
Let shouts of holy joy outburst,
Hallelujah!

3 The three sad days are quickly sped;
He rises glorious from the dead:

All glory to our risen Head!
Hallelujah!

4 He closed the yawning gates of Hell;
The bars from Heaven's high portals fell!
Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell!
Hallelujah!

5 Lord! by the stripes which wounded
Thee,
From Death's dread sting Thy servants
free,
That we may live, and sing to Thee,
Hallelujah!

614.

8. 7. Tune 611.

1 SEE the Conqueror mounts in triumph;
See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds, His chariot
To His heavenly palace gate!
Hark! the choir of angel voices,
Joyful alleluias sing,
And the portals high are lifted,
To receive their heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He hath gained the victory!
He Who on the Cross did suffer,
He Who from the grave arose,
He hath vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death hath spoiled His foes.

3 Now our heavenly Aaron enters,
With His Blood within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan,
And the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel
In their promised resting-place;
Now our great Elijah offers
Double portion of His grace.

4 He hath raised our human nature
On the clouds to God's right hand:
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Him in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by angels:
Man with God is on the throne:
Mighty Lord, in Thine Ascension
We by faith behold our own.

S. M. Tune 3, or 376.

1 THOU art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies,
And round Thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.
But we are lingering here,
With sin and care oppressed;
Lord, send Thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to Thy rest!

2 Thou art gone up on high;
But Thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto Thy crown;

And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to Thee!

3 Thou art gone up on high:
But Thou shalt come again,
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in Thy train.
O by Thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour,
At Thy right hand on high!

2 Jesus, too late I Thee have sought;
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how extol Thy matchless fame?
The glorious beauty of Thy Name?
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore,
O make me love Thee more and more.

3 Jesus, what didst Thou find in me,
That Thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that Thou hast brought!
How far exceeding hope or thought!
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore,
O make me love Thee more and more.

4 Jesus, of Thee shall be my song;
To Thee my heart and soul belong;

621. Jesus nimmt die Sünder an.

FIRST PART.

7, 8, 7. Tune 36, or 143.

1 JESUS sinners doth receive!
Let the lost and sorrowing hear it;
Though in sin and shame they grieve,

And Jehovah's anger merit,
Here's what can their woe relieve:
Jesus sinners doth receive.

2 No such mercy can we claim,
But our blessed Lord hath spoken;
He hath sworn by His great Name,
And His Word cannot be broken.
Heaven is open! O believe,
Jesus sinners doth receive.

3 As the shepherd seeks to find
His lost sheep that from him strayeth,
So hath Christ each soul in mind,

And for its salvation prayeth;
Fain He'd have each wanderer live—
Jesus sinners doth receive.

4 Come then, all by guilt oppressed,
Jesus calls, and He would make you
God's own children, pure and blest,
And to glory He would take you;
Think on this, and well believe,
Jesus sinners doth receive.

SECOND PART.

7, 8, 7. Tune 36, or 230.

1 IN my grief I now draw near,
All my sinfulness confessing;
Saviour, my petition hear,
Grant me pardon and Thy blessing;
Help, O help me to believe,
Jesus sinners doth receive.

2 Cheered at thought of peace with God,
Darkness yields to hopeful brightness;
Through the merit of Thy Blood
Scarlet sins are turned to whiteness,
As I say, and now believe,
Jesus sinners doth receive.

3 Now my conscience is at peace;
From the Law I stand acquitted;
Christ hath purchased my release,
And my every sin remitted.
Naught remains my soul to grieve,
Jesus sinners doth receive.

4 Jesus sinners doth receive,
Me hath taken to His favor,
Opened heaven that I may live
With my Lord at home for ever;
While in death this joy I have:
Jesus sinners doth receive.

Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!
- 2 Holy, Holy, Holy! all the saints adore Thee;
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea.
Cherubim and Seraphim, falling down before Thee;
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
- 3 Holy, Holy, Holy! though the darkness hide Thee;
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy, there is none beside Thee,
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.
- 4 Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy Name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, Blessed Trinity!

2 Lord, Thy Church is ever praying:
 Now her anxious yearnings hear;
 Speed the triumphs of Thy Kingdom;
 Spread its victories far and near.
 Own the work, Thy grace attend it,
 Which we undertake for Thee;
 Let a holy love inflame us;
 Kindle zeal and fervency.

3 That Thy fields be rightly cultured,
 Send the laborers that we need,—
 Men to light the heavy darkness,
 Sow the wastes with precious seed.
 Then send down the gentle showers,
 Make Thy gracious sunlight shine,
 That each field may joy with blessing,
 Bringing forth the fruits divine.

4 By the breezes of Thy Spirit,
 Fan all deadness into life;
 Bless the seeds to Thee upspringing,
 Keep each plant from blast and strife.
 And, ye toilers in this seeding,
 Know the promise God hath given;
 Glorious crowns await the faithful,
 And eternal gains in heaven.

- 1 CHRIST is the foundation
Of the house we raise;
Be its walls salvation,
And its gateways praise.
May its threshold lowly
To the Lord be dear,
May the hearts be holy
That shall worship here.
- 2 On the Rock of Ages,
Resting broad and deep,
When life's tempest rages
Here let passion sleep:
Here may prayer and praises
Never cease to rise,
Till, through Christ, they raise us
Nearer to the skies.
- 3 Here may faith attending
Find fruition fair;
Here may spirits bending
Breathe the breath of prayer:

Here may holy gladness
Fill the waiting heart,
Until sin and sadness
Evermore depart.

- 4 Here may every token
Of Thy Presence be,
Here may chains be broken,
Prisoners here set free:
Here may light illumine
Every soul of Thine,
Lifting up the human
Into the divine.
- 5 Here may God the Father,
God the Saviour, Son,
God the Holy Spirit,
Be adored as One;
Till the whole creation
At Thy footstool fall,
And in adoration
Own Thee Lord of all.

HOME AND FAMILY.

636. { "O selig Haus, wo man dich aufgenommen."
O blessed house.

11, 10.

636. O selig Haus, wo man dich aufgenommen.

- 1 O BLESSED house, that cheerfully receiveth
Thy visits, Jesus Christ, the soul's true Friend,
That, far beyond all other guests, believeth
It must to Thee its warmest cheer extend:
Where every heart to Thee is fondly turning,
Where every eye for Thee with pleasure seeks,
Where all to know Thy will are truly yearning,
And every one, to do it promptly seeks.

- 2 O blessèd house, where man and wife united
 In Thy true love, have both one heart and mind,
 Where both to Thy salvation are invited,
 And in Thy doctrine both contentment find,
 Where both, to Thee, in truth, forever cleaving,
 In joy, in grief, make Thee their only stay,
 And fondly hope in Thee to be believing,
 Both in the good and in the evil day.
- 3 O blessèd house, where little children, tender,
 Are laid upon Thy heart, with hands of prayer,
 Thou Friend of children, Who wilt freely render
 To them more than a mother's loving care,
 Where round Thy feet they gather, to Thee clinging,
 And hear Thy loving voice most willingly,
 And in their songs, Thy hearty praises ringing,
 Rejoice in Thee, O blessèd Lord, in Thee.
- 4 O blessèd house, where faithful servants, knowing
 That all their works are done within Thy sight,
 In all their work with holy zeal are glowing
 To do alone what Thou esteemest right;
 As Thy true servants, in whom Thou delightest,
 In meekness willing, by that love constrained
 Which shows, in all its works, the least, the brightest,
 How in small things great faith may be maintained.
- 5 O blessèd house, the joys of which Thou sharest,
 And never art forgot in scenes of joy;
 O blessèd house, for whose sad wounds Thou carest,
 Where all the sick Thy healing power employ;
 Until, at last, the day's work fully ended,
 All, finally, in joyful rapture, fly
 To that blest House to which Thou hast ascended,
 Unto the blessèd Father's House on High.

 In all I think, or speak, or do.

 O let me cheerfully fulfill;
 In all my works Thy presence find,
 And prove Thy good and perfect will.

 Whose eyes my inmost substance see,
 And labor on at Thy command,
 And offer all my works to Thee.

 Whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given,

Hence, cheerfully, May we, with Thee
Take up our cross, and bear it,
Till we relief inherit.
- 3 We wait for Thee; here Thou hast won
Our hearts to hope and duty;
But while our spirits feel Thee near,
Our eyes would see Thy beauty;
We fain would be At rest with Thee
In peace and joy supernal,
In glorious life eternal.
- 4 We wait for Thee; sure Thou wilt come;
The time is swiftly nearing;
In this we also now rejoice,
And long for Thine appearing.
O, bliss 'twill be When Thee we see,
Homeward Thy people bringing,
With transport and with singing!

 Him all holy reverence give;
 Praise Him, praise Him evermore,
 Yea, praise Him all that live.
- 26 7, 8, 7, 8, 7, 7, Tr.
 HOLY Father, Holy Son,
 Holy Spirit, we adore Thee,
 Everlasting Three in One;
 Let all creatures bow before Thee,
 Saints and angels bless Thy Name,
 Earth and heaven Thy praise proclaim.
- 27 8, 7.
 PRAISE the Father, earth and heaven;

 Glory through eternal days.
- 28 8, 7. 6 lines.
 PRAISE and honor to the Father;
 Praise and honor to the Son;

 Ever Three, and ever One,
 Consubstantial, Coeternal,
 While unending ages run.
- 29 8, 7. D.
 PRAISE the God of all creation;
 Praise the Father's boundless Love;
 Praise the Lamb, our Expiation,

 Him by Whom our spirits live;
 Undivided adoration
 To the One Jehovah give.
- 30 8, 7. D. Iambic.
 NOW to the Holy Three in One,
 Who o'er creation reigneth,
 Be everlasting honor done,
 To Whom all praise pertaineth;
 To Him in Whom we live and move,
 To Him in glory seated,
 By saints on earth, by saints above,
 Be praise for aye repeated.
- 31 GREAT Jehovah, we adore Thee,
 God the Father, God the Son,
 God the Spirit, joined in glory
 On the same eternal Throne:
 Endless praises
 To Jehovah, Three in One.

 TO Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 The God of our salvation,
 The everlasting Three in One,

 And highest Glory be,
 To God our Strength eternal.
- 33 8, 7, 7, 7.
 GLORY be to God the Father,
 Glory be to God the Son,
 Glory be to God the Spirit,

 Him let heaven and earth adore,
 Now, henceforth, and evermore.
- 34 8, 7, 8, 8.
 PRAISE the God of all creation;
 Praise the Father's boundless love;
 Praise the Lamb our expiation;

10s.

AND now to God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit ever Three in One,
Be praise from all on earth and all in heaven,
As was, and is, and ever shall be given.

38

11s.

O FATHER Almighty, to Thee be addressed,
With Christ and the Spirit, One God ever blest,
All glory and worship from earth and from heaven,
As was, and is now, and shall ever be given.

39* Tune 270, or 293.

8, 7, 4, 7.

GLORY be to God the Father!
Glory be to God the Son!
Glory be to God the Spirit!
Great Jehovah Three in One!
Glory, glory,
While eternal ages run.

Glory be to Him Who loved us,
Washed us from each spot and stain!
Glory be to Him Who bought us,
Made us kings with Him to reign!
Glory, glory,
To the Lamb that once was slain.

Glory to the King of angels!
Glory to the Church's King!
Glory to the King of nations!
Heaven and earth, your praises bring;—
Glory, glory,
To the King of glory bring.

Glory, blessing, praise eternal!
Thus the choir of angels sings,
Honor, riches, power, dominion!
Thus its praise creation brings;
Glory, glory,
Glory to the King of kings.

Horatius Bonar, 1868.
